RE: Late filing of the 1998 Corporate Annual Report for J & M Moving and Storage Inc.

To whom it may concern,

I have been incorporated in the State of Florida for the past eight years. During that time I have not been late once filing the annual report. Unfortunately, I did not receive the first annual report notice from your office. We are aware that the filing of the annual report is required by Florida Law and thought that we had filed this form on time.

I spoke with my accountant last week and he said that some other companies that also filed late were allowed to pay a reduced amount if they did not receive the first notice.

Because of my excellent filing history and the fact that I did not receive the first filing notice I am respectfully requesting penalty abatement for the late filing of my 1998 Annual Report. Your understanding and sympathy regarding this matter will be appreciated.

We have enclosed a check for $150.00 which is the amount due for timely filed annual reports.

Sincerely,

Joseph L. Hartigan

Joseph Hartigan, President
