Each Manager has the power, on behalf of the Company, to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the Company's business and affairs, including the power to (a) purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property; (b) sell, convey, mortgage, grant a security interest in, pledge, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of or encumber any real or personal property; (c) open one or more depository accounts and make deposits into, write checks against, and make withdrawals against such accounts; (d) borrow money and incur liabilities and other obligations; (e) enter into any and all agreements and execute any and all contracts, documents, and instruments; (f) engage employees and agents and define their respective duties and compensation; (g) establish pension plans, trusts, profit-sharing plans, and other benefit and incentive plans for Company Members, employees, and agents; (h) obtain insurance covering the business and affairs of the Company and its property and the lives and well-being of its Member employees and agents; (i) begin, prosecute, or defend any proceeding in the Company's name; and (j) participate with others in partnerships, joint ventures, and other associations and strategic alliances.

4.3 Limitations. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Operating Agreement, no act shall be taken, sum expended, decision made, obligation incurred, or power exercised by any Manager on behalf of the Company, except by the unanimous consent of all Members, with respect to (a) any significant and material purchase, receipt, lease, exchange, or other acquisition of any real or personal property or business; (b) the sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and property; (c) any mortgage, grant of security interest, pledge, or encumbrance on all or substantially all of the Company's assets and property; (d) any merger; (e) any amendment or restatement of these Articles or this Operating Agreement; (f) any matter that could result in a change in the amount or character of the Company's capital; (g) any change in the character of the Company's business and affairs; (h) the commission of any act that would make it impossible for the Company to carry on its ordinary business and affairs; or (i) any act that would contravene any provision of the Articles, Operating Agreement, or the Act.

Article 5

Disposition of Membership Interests

5.1 General. Every sale, assignment, transfer, exchange, mortgage, pledge, grant, hypothecation, or other disposition of any membership interest shall be made only in compliance with this Article. No membership interest shall be disposed of if (a) the disposition would cause a termination of the Company under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; (b) the disposition would not comply with all applicable state and federal securities laws and regulations; or (c) the assignee of the membership interest fails to provide the Company with the information and agreements that the Managers may require in connection with such a disposition. Any attempted disposition of a membership interest in violation of this Article is void.

5.2 Permitted Dispositions. Subject to the provisions of this Article, a Member may assign the Member's membership interest in the Company in whole or in part. The assignment of a membership interest does not itself entitle the assignee to participate in the management and affairs of the Company or to become a Member. The assignee is entitled to receive, to the extent assigned, only the distributions to which the assigning Member would otherwise be entitled.

5.3 Admission of Substitute Members. An assignee of a membership interest shall be admitted as a substitute Member and shall be entitled to all the assignor's rights and powers only if the other Members unanimously consent. If admitted, the substitute Member has, to the extent assigned, all of the rights, powers, restrictions, and liabilities of a Member.

Article 6

Dissolution and Winding Up; Continuation of Business

6.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve and its affairs shall be wound up on the first to occur of the following events: (a) at any time specified in the Articles or this Operating Agreement; (b) on the occurrence of any event specified in the Articles or this Operating Agreement; or (c) on the unanimous consent of all the Members.

6.2 Winding Up. On dissolution, the Company shall cease carrying on its business and affairs and shall begin to wind them up. The Company shall complete the winding up as soon as practicable. On the winding up of the Company, its assets shall be distributed first to creditors, to the extent permitted by law, in order to satisfy Company debts, liabilities, and obligations, and then to Members and former Members. Distributions to Members and former Members shall be made first to satisfy liabilities for distributions and then in accordance with the Members' Sharing Ratios. The proceeds shall be paid to the Members within 90 days after the date of the winding up.

6.3 Continuation of Company after Disassociation. Notwithstanding the death, withdrawal, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a Member or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a Member in the Company, the Company's business and affairs shall continue. When any such event occurs, the Company shall purchase and the holder shall sell the disassociating Member's interest in the Company, pursuant to a buy-sell agreement that is required to be prepared. Such sale and purchase shall be completed within 90 days of any such event. It is intended that the duration of the company be perpetual.

Article 7 Capital Contributions

7.1 Initial Commitments and Contributions. By executing this Operating Agreement, the initial Members agree to make the capital contributions set forth in attached Exhibit A. The Members' interests in the total capital of the Company (the Members' "Sharing Ratios," adjusted from time to time to reflect changes in the Capital Accounts of the Members and the total capital in the Company) is also set forth in Exhibit A. Any additional Member (other than an assignee of a membership interest who has been admitted as a Member) shall make the capital contribution set forth in an Admission Agreement. No interest shall accrue on any capital contribution and no Member shall have any right to withdraw or to be repaid any capital contribution except as provided in this Operating Agreement.

7.2 Additional Contributions. In addition to the initial capital contributions, the Managers may determine from time to time that additional capital contributions are needed to enable the Company to conduct its business and affairs. After making such a determination, notice of it shall be given to all Members in writing at least 10 business days before the date on which the additional contributions are due. The notice shall describe in reasonable detail the purposes and uses of the additional capital, the amounts of additional capital required, and the date by which payment of the additional capital is due. Each Member shall be obligated to make additional capital contributions to the extent of any unfulfilled commitment. Any Member who has fulfilled the Member's commitment has the right, but not the obligation, to make any additional capital contributions needed, according to that Member's Sharing Ratio.

7.3 Failure to Contribute. If a Member fails to make a capital contribution when required, the Company may, in addition to pursuing any other rights and remedies the Company may have under the Act or applicable law, take any enforcement action (including the commencement and prosecution of court proceedings) against the Member that the Managers consider appropriate. Moreover, the remaining Members may elect to contribute the required capital themselves, according to their respective Sharing Ratios. The Members who make such contributions shall be entitled to treat these amounts as an extension of credit to the defaulting Member, payable on demand, with interest accruing on the extension at the rate of 8% per annum until paid. This extension of credit shall be secured by the defaulting Member's interest in the Company. Each Member who defaults grants to each Member who may later grant an extension of credit a security interest in the defaulting Member's interest in the Company.

7.4. Affidavit of Membership and Contributions is attached.

Article 8
Allocations and Distributions

8.1 Allocations. Except as may be required by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or by this Operating Agreement, the Company's net profits, net losses, and other items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit shall be allocated among the Members in accordance with each Member's Sharing Ratio.

8.2 Distributions. The Managers may make distributions to the Members from time to time. Distributions may be made only after the Managers determine, in their reasonable judgment, that the Company has cash on hand exceeding the Company's current and anticipated needs (including operating expenses, debt service, acquisitions, reserves, and mandatory distributions, if any). All distributions shall be made to the Members in accordance with each Member's Sharing Ratio. Distributions shall be in cash or property, or both, as the Managers determine. No distribution shall be declared or made if, after giving it effect, (a) the Company would not be able to pay its debts as they became due in the usual course of business; or (b) the Company's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the Company were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy on dissolution the preferential rights of other Members that are superior to the rights of the Members receiving the distribution.

Article 9
Meetings of Members

9.1 Voting. All Members shall be entitled to vote on any matter submitted to a vote of the Members. The Members shall have the right to vote on all of the following: (a) the dissolution of the Company pursuant to paragraph 9.1(c) of this Operating Agreement, (b) the merger of the Company, (c) a transaction involving an actual or potential conflict of interest between a Manager and the Company, (d) an amendment to the Articles, and (e) the sale, exchange, lease, or other transfer of all or substantially all of the Company's assets other than in the ordinary course of business.

9.2 Required Vote. Unless a greater vote is required by the Act or the Articles, the affirmative vote or consent of a majority of the Sharing Ratios of all the Members entitled to vote or consent on the matter is required.

9.3 Meetings. An annual meeting of Members for the transaction of such business as may properly come before the meeting shall be held at the time, date, and place that the Managers shall determine. Special meetings of Members for any proper purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the Managers or the holders of at least 10% of the Sharing Ratios of all Members. The Company shall deliver or mail written notice stating the date, time, place, and purpose(s) of any meeting to each Member entitled to vote at the meeting. The notice shall be given not less than 10 or more than 60 days before the meeting date. All meetings of Members shall be presided over by a Chairperson, designated by the Managers from amongst themselves.

9.4 Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at an annual or special meeting of the Members may be taken by consent without a meeting, prior notice, or a vote. The consent must be in writing, set forth the action taken, and be signed by the Members having at least the minimum number of votes necessary to authorize or take such an action at a meeting at which all membership interests entitled to vote on the action are present and voting. Every written consent shall also bear the date signifying when each Member signed the consent. Prompt notice of the taking of action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to all Members who did not consent in writing to the action.

Article 10 Exculpation of Liability; Indemnification

10.1 Exculpation of Liability. Unless otherwise provided by law or expressly assumed, a person who is a Member or Manager, or both, shall not be liable for the acts, debts, or liabilities of the Company.

10.2 Indemnification. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, the Company shall indemnify any Manager and may indemnify any employee or agent of the Company who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to a threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal), other than an action by or in the right of the Company, where such person is a party because the person is or was a Manager, employee, or agent of the Company. The Company shall indemnify the Manager, employee, or agent against expenses, including attorney fees, judgments, penalties, fines, and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by that person in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding. The Company shall indemnify the Manager, employee, or agent if the person acted in good faith, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and in a manner that the person reasonably believed to be in the Company's best interests. With respect to a criminal action or proceeding, the person must have had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. To the extent that a Member, employee, or agent of the Company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of an action, suit, or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue, or other matter in the action, suit, or proceeding, that person shall be indemnified against actual and reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, he or she incurs in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding and any action, suit, or proceeding brought to enforce this mandatory indemnification. Unless ordered by a court, any indemnification permitted under this Article shall be made by the Company only as the Company authorizes in the specific case after (a) determining that the indemnification is proper under the circumstances because the person to be indemnified has met the applicable standard of conduct and (b) evaluating the reasonableness of the expenses and of the amounts paid in settlement. This determination and evaluation shall be made by a majority vote of the Members who are not parties or threatened to be made parties to the action, suit, or proceeding. However, no indemnification shall be provided to any Manager, employee, or agent of the Company for or in connection with (a) the receipt of a financial benefit to which the person is not entitled; (b) voting for or assenting to a distribution to Members in violation of this Operating Agreement or the Act; (c) a knowing violation of the law; or (d) an action brought by or in the name of the Company.
