Re: Limited Liability Company Annual Report

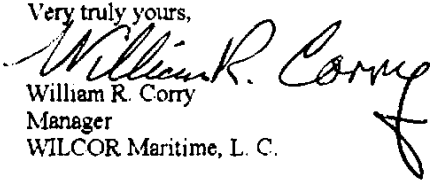

Dear Ms. Harris:

This letter is in response to a gentleman in your department, who suggested that I write a note transmitting the enclosed report and check, explaining that I did not receive the ~~second~~ ^{first} letter from your department concerning the annual report.

Accordingly, enclosed please find my check for $188.00 along with the Limited Liability Company Annual Report.

I apologize for my oversight in not including my check with the initial report in January 1999 and do appreciate your help in this matter.

Very truly yours,

William R. Corry
