Re: Subject : MCCUE & MCCUE. P.L.

Dear Ms. Hodges:

With this letter, I have returned our Articles of Organization for a Florida Limited Liability Company. Upon close review of Florida Statutes Chapters 608 and 621, I have determined that you have made a mistake. The application and Articles of Organization are legally sufficient and should not be denied filing by the Division of Corporations. The Articles comply completely with the requirements of Chapters 608 and 621. There is no requirement that the Articles identify the nature of business the company will be conducting. Therefore, I am requesting that these Articles of Organization for a Florida Limited Liability Company be filed in accordance with Florida Law.

If a superior staff person instructed you to deny filing these Articles, please ask that person to point out the exact language in Florida Statutes that states the Articles of Organization for a Florida Limited Liability Company must identify the nature of business the company will be conducting as a condition to filing with the Department of State. I looked for over one hour and I cannot find any such requirement. I think someone there is confused. (Or maybe it's me!).

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Christian A. McCue
