To whom it may concern, regarding our corporation MIAMI INTERNATIONAL OVERSEAS CORP., FEI # 65-0345004

I am desperate. Due to the following errors I did not receive my corporate paper work on time and our corporation was dissolved in August without my knowledge, and our family relies on this corporation for it's livelihood.

I am a housewife and officer of our home business. But my responsibilities up until now have been the book keeping for the company. The president, my husband, was responsible for the corporate paperwork. This year, most of 1997 and all of 1998, he has been living out of the country and left the corporate paperwork...which I have no idea about.... in my hands. Also..due to the several times we have moved in the last two years and due to postal error, it was lost in the mail for several months, and the paperwork to file for the corporation was delayed until now getting to us.

Not knowing I needed to file these papers and getting them severely late in the first place has placed me at your mercy. I was informed that if I sent this letter and the two filing fees and the form as of today by Federal Express that you might see fit to reinstate us for last year and this year. As I said I am desperate...I was at the mercy of the post office and my own ignorance. The fact is that I am on my own with three kids with no one to help me in this difficult situation ...I need your help please advise me that you will reinstate our Corporation. It is vital to my family's well-being.

My phone number is #301-320-0962. Please help us .
