- (i) a breach of the manager's duty of loyalty to the Company or its members;
- (ii) an act or omission not in good faith that constitutes a breach of duty of the manager to the Company or an act or omission that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;

- (iv) an act or omission for which the liability of a manager is expressly provided by an applicable statute.

Any repeal or amendment of this Article by the members of the Company shall not adversely affect any indemnification of a manager of the Company, or limitation on the indemnification of a manager of the Company existing at the time of such repeal or amendment. In addition to the circumstances in which the manager of the Company is not liable as set forth in the preceding sentences, the manager shall not be liable to the fullest extent permitted by any provision of the statutes of Florida hereafter enacted that further limits the liability of a manager of a limited liability company or of a director of a corporation. The foregoing limitation of the liability to the Company or its members for monetary damages shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights or limitations of liability or indemnity to which a manager may be entitled under any other provision of the Articles of Organization or the Operating Regulations of the Company, contract or agreement, vote of managers and/or disinterested managers of the Company, or otherwise.
