EXHIBIT BMEMBERS' INTEREST; TRANSFERS OF INTERESTS

7.1 Certificates of Membership Interest. The Company shall have the power, but shall not be required, to issue certificates of Membership Interest in registered form representing ownership of an interest in the Company ("certificates"). The denominations of the certificates shall correspond to the amount of capital contributed by the member to the Company. Subject to the restrictions on transfer set forth in this Agreement, the certificate shall be transferable or interchangeable on presentation at the office of the Company, properly endorsed or accompanied by an instrument of transfer and executed by the Member or his or her authorized attorney, together with payment of any tax or governmental charge imposed upon the transfer of certificates. The Company shall replace any mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed certificate on proper identification, indemnity satisfactory to the Company and payment of any charges incurred in the replacement. On a return of all or any portion of the capital of the Company contributed by a Member holding a certificate, the Member shall surrender the certificate or certificates for appropriate adjustment prior to receipt of his or her capital contribution.

7.2 Transfer of Member's Interest.

(A) Subject to the provisions herein, an interest of a Member in the Company may be transferred or assigned by (a) transfer of a certificate, if certificates have been issued by the Company, or (b) by any manner sufficient to transfer personal property under applicable law.

(B) Except as otherwise provided herein, no Member may assign, transfer, pledge or other grant a security interest in all or any of its interest in the Company without the written approval of no less than thirty per cent (30%) of the Membership Interests or without the written approval of the Manager.

(C) In no event may any person obtaining an interest in the Company by assignment, transfer, pledge or other means from an existing Member be admitted as a successor or substitute or additional Member without complying with the requirements in the Article VII. If the requirements for transfer are not obtained, the transferee of the interest of the Member shall have no right to participate in the business and affairs of the Company or to become a Member. The transferee shall be entitled to receive only the share of profits or other compensation by way of income and the return of contributions to which that member otherwise would be entitled. If an assignee becomes a Member, the assignor is not released from his or her liability to the Company under applicable Florida statutes (including but not limited to 608.4211, 608.426 and 608.4362).

(D) The Company and its Members shall be entitled to treat the record owner of an interest in the Company as the absolute owner thereof in all respects, and shall incur no liability for distributions of cash or other property made in good faith to such owner until such time as a written assignment of such interest has been received by the Manager and accepted by the Manager (in accordance with procedures set forth in this Article VII) and recorded on the books of the Company. The Manager or Members may refuse to accept and record an assignment until the end of the next successive accounting period of the Company.

7.3 Requirements for Transfer. Every transfer of an Interest in the Company permitted hereunder, including transfers permitted under Section 7.5 shall be subject to the following requirements:

(A) The transferee shall establish that the proposed transfer will not cause or result in a breach of any agreement binding upon the Company or any violation of law, including without limitation, federal or state securities laws, and that the proposed transfer would not cause the Company to be an investment Company as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended;

(B) The transferee shall establish to the satisfaction of the Manager or Members holding thirty per cent (30%) in Membership Interests that the transferee is financially responsible and of good character and that the transfer would not adversely affect the classification of the Company as a partnership for federal tax purposes, terminate its classification as a partnership under the Code Section 708, or have a substantial adverse effect to the Company with respect to federal income taxes payable by the Company, if any; and

(C) The transferee shall execute a counterpart of this Agreement, or consents thereto and such other documents and instruments as may be required by the members to reflect provisions hereof.

Until the foregoing requirements are met, the Company need not recognize the transferee for any purpose under this Agreement, and until the requisite approval of the transaction in accordance with the provisions of 7.2(B) the transferee shall be entitled only to the rights of a transferee who is not a Member under the Act.

7.4 Prohibited Transfers. Any transfer in violation of any provisions of this Agreement shall be null and void and ineffective to transfer any interest in the Company and shall not be binding upon nor be recognized by the Company, and any such transferee shall not be treated as or deemed to be a Member for any purpose. In the event that any Member shall at any time transfer its interest in violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement, the Company and the other Members, in addition to all rights and remedies at law and equity, shall have and be entitled to an order restraining or enjoining such transaction, it being expressly acknowledged and agreed that damages at law would be an inadequate remedy for a transfer in violation of this Agreement.

7.5 Permitted Transfers. The following are the only permitted transfers which do not require approval of the transfer; provided however that such transfers are subject to the provisions of 7.2 (A) above:

An interest of a Member may be transferred from time to time to the spouse or issue of that Member or the spouse of such issue, or siblings of such spouse or such issue, or a trust for such persons or the duly appointed executor, guardian or other legal representative of a Member in case of his death or incapacity.

7.6 Admission of Additional or Substitute Members. No person may be admitted as an additional or substitute Member without complying with Sections 7.2 and 7.8.

7.7 Termination of a Member's Interest in the Company. A Member's death, expulsion, dissolution, becoming Bankrupt or termination of a Member's Interest in the Company shall not dissolve the Company, and such Member's legal representative shall have all the rights of the Member for the purpose of settling the Member's estate and such power as the Member possessed to transfer his Membership Interest and to join with the transferee thereof in satisfying the conditions precedent to such transferee becoming a successor or substitute Member which are set forth in this Article VII.

7.8 Substitute or Additional Member. A person shall only be admitted as a substitute or additional Member under this Agreement in compliance with the following:

(A) A transfer contemplated by Section 7.2 shall be made only by a written document, signed by the transferor Member and accepted in writing by the transferee, and a duplicate original of such documents shall be delivered to the Company and consented to as required by the Article VII, if required.

(B) The transferee shall execute and deliver to the Company a written agreement in form reasonably satisfactory to the Manager, pursuant to which said person agrees to be bound by this Agreement and grants the power of attorney contained in this Agreement; and

(C) The costs incurred by the Company associated with the admission of a substitute or additional Member contemplated by this Article (including reasonable attorneys fees) shall be borne by the transferee.

7.9 Withdrawal. No Member may withdraw or resign from the Company prior to the dissolution or winding up of the Company.
