ARTICLE IV

Purposes

The limited liability company may engage in the transaction of any or all lawful business for which limited liability companies may be formed under the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE V

General Powers

The limited liability company shall have the power to:

(a) Purchase, take, receive, lease or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use, or otherwise deal in or with real or personal property (the "Property"), or an interest in real or personal property, wherever situated.

(b) Sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, create a security interest in, lease, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any part of its Property or assets.

(c) Purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge or otherwise dispose of, use or deal in or with:

(i) Shares or other interests in or obligations of other foreign or domestic limited liability companies, domestic or foreign corporations, associations, general or limited partnerships or individuals; and

(ii) Direct or indirect obligations of the United States or any other government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality, or of any instrumentality thereof.

(d) Make contracts or guarantees or incur liabilities; borrow money at such rates of interest as the limited liability company may determine; issue its notes, bonds, or other obligations or secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any part of its Property, assets, franchises or income.

(e) Lend money for any lawful purpose, invest or reinvest its funds, or take and hold real or personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

(f) Conduct its business, carry on its operations and have offices, and exercise the powers granted by Florida law, within or without the State of Florida.

(g) Elect or appoint managers and agents, define their duties, and fix their compensation.

(h) Make and alter regulations not inconsistent with these Articles of Organization or the laws of the State of Florida.

(i) Make donations to the public welfare or for charitable, scientific or educational purposes.

(j) Indemnify a Member (as defined in the Regulations of the limited liability company) or any other person to the same extent as a corporation may indemnify any of the directors, officers, employees, or agents of the limited liability company against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him/her or it in connection with the defense of an action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, in which he/she or it is made a party.

(k) Cease its activities and surrender this Certificate of Organization.

(l) Have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the limited liability company is organized.

(m) Transact any lawful business which the Members or the Manager(s) (as hereinafter defined) find to be in aid of governmental policy.

(n) Pay pensions and establish pension plans, profit-sharing plans, 401 (K) and other incentive plans for any or all of its Managers and employees.

(o) Be a promoter, incorporator, general partner, limited partner, member, associate, or manager of any corporation, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise.

(p) Have and exercise all other powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes.

ARTICLE VI

ARTICLE XI

Restrictions on Membership

No new members shall be admitted to the limited liability company without the prior consent of a majority of the existing Members' interests. Contributions required of new members shall be determined as of the time of their admission to the limited liability company. A member's interest in the limited liability company may not be sold or otherwise transferred except in compliance with the regulations of the limited liability company. Additional restrictions and conditions on membership may be set forth in regulations adopted by a majority of the members interests.

ARTICLE XII

Regulations

The members of the limited liability company shall adopt regulations which shall also act as the operating agreement of the members pertaining to the regulation, management and affairs of the limited liability company, provided that such regulations shall not be inconsistent with these Articles of Organization or with the laws of the State of Florida. The regulations shall be repealed or altered only by a majority of the Members' interests of the limited liability company, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE XIII

Acknowledgment

The undersigned, being all the members of the limited liability company, hereby certify that the foregoing constitutes the Articles of Organization of South Florida Ranch, LLC. These Articles of Organization may be amended from time to time by the members in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE XIV

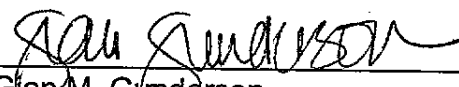

Voting

Each Member's vote shall be weighted in proportion to the Member's initial capital accounts plus any additional capital contributed by the members at the request of the limited liability company.
