Re: Expressway Vending Corp 2002 Doc. # L99285
Crystal Holding Corp. 2002 Doc. #L79326

Concerning letter received today, you make no mention of my letter attached to my Annual Report. Given my record I feel an $800.00 fine is unfair. I file Intangible tax, Sales tax and Unemployment forms for these corporations, if one of your employees took the time to check addresses, they would have seen what was wrong. Again, I feel, if a fine is imposed, notice should be sent to the Registered Agent.

If you still see fit to deny my request, please advise me what is the procedure to file an appeal.

Re: Expressway Vending Corp 2002 Doc. # L99285
Crystal Holding Corp. 2002 Doc. #L79326

I am requesting a waiver of late fee because I have just received the renewal forms for these two Corporations. They were sent to my old address in New Port Richey. These people are not year round residents, and just forwarded them to me now.

I moved to this address in November 1, 2000, (33 months ago) and have always received the forms before, and have never been late. I have my 2002 reports on hand, and they list my correct address as officer and registered agent, but apparently I never changed the address of the place of business. I feel before a fine is imposed, notice should be sent to the registered agent.
