RE: Amendment

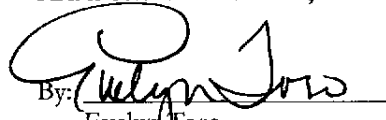

Dear Sirs,

Enclosed please find the completed form provided by your office regarding amendment of our firm's name to Hamburger Law Firm, LLC. Please note when our request for amendment was originally made via your website, we received a phone call from one of your representatives informing us that our name, as Hamburger Law Firm, I.L.L.C. was listed this way with the State of New Jersey. I immediately contacted the State of New Jersey and confirmed they had made a typographical error, as all our paperwork stated Hamburger Law Firm, LLC (without the periods). I received an email from a representative for the NJ Division of Revenue confirming my request and thereby correcting the error. I have enclosed the emails as evidence. The amendment was verified by visiting the NJ State Business Gateway Services website.

Although you request a certificate evidencing the amendment, we do not feel we should have to pay for another certificate; therefore, we have contacted the State of New Jersey to request certified verification of amendment, but have not received a response yet. Since this is a time sensitive matter, please accept the information provided as evidence.

Should you have any questions or require any additional information regarding any of the foregoing, I remain available at your convenience using any of the methods below.

Very truly yours,
HAMBURGER LAW FIRM, LLC
