Re: Bitter End Yacht Club International, L.L.C.
Century America LLC
Century Cruising, L.L.C.

To Whom It May Concern:

Enclosed are three (3) Applications for Reinstatement for the above three entities signed by the Registered Agent and a Manager. We spoke to a representative in your office on October 20, 2003 and questioned why certificates of dissolution had been issued. We were informed that the original 2003 uniform business reports were sent to the address on file in January and June of this year. We demurred and again reiterate, with complete certainty, that we did not receive any communication from your office at this address in 2003.

Your representative did offer to reduce the reinstatement charge to $50.00 per entity, and three checks are enclosed herein.

Sincerely yours,

Jonathan Strauss

Ref. Number: M02000002572

Dear Ms. Cushing:

Per my phone conversation with you on December 9, 2003, we are resubmitting the original Application for Reinstatement for the above entity which was returned to us by your office. You told me that by including three applications for reinstatement in one letter (see October 30, 2003 letter, a copy of which is also enclosed), our request to mitigate the penalties was not addressed and you will honor the representations made when I called your office in October.

Sincerely yours,

Ruth A. Lewis
