Re: Letters Number: 703A00022248 and 603A00022247.

Dear Mr. Bryan:

This letter will follow up our brief telephone conversation last week regarding SDI of Orange Blossom, Florida, LLC, and SDI of St. Cloud, Florida, LLC. By way of background, both of these limited liability companies are organized and existing pursuant to the laws of the State of Missouri. The intent in operations behind both companies was to acquire the business operations of existing Sonic restaurants in their respective locations. I am enclosing a copy of the Certificate of Organization for each company issued by the Missouri Secretary of State. You will note that each Certificate is dated November 27, 2002. Our office prepared the Articles of Organization and filed the same with the Missouri Secretary of State for each entity.

These two companies were established in anticipation of assuming the business operations of the Florida Sonic restaurants on the first business day in 2003. As it turns out, for business and financial reasons, the timetable was accelerated such that operations began some time in December, 2002.

It has always been the intent of these companies and the investors to comply in every way with Florida law concerning the ownership and operation of the Sonic restaurants. We believe you will find that the Sonic restaurants owned and operated by the investors in these and other companies owning Sonic restaurants have engaged in the highest business practices and are model corporate citizens. On a personal note, I am aware that the principals behind the two Sonic restaurants own and operate in excess of 40 Sonic restaurants in four states. They have an exemplary record and are involved in every municipality in which their store is located as a sponsor of activities ranging from little leagues through high school and social events.

The reason for this background is to better familiarize you with the intent and persona of Sonic restaurants. We make every effort to be a partner in the community in which the store is located with local county and state authorities. We sincerely regret that the timetable for this transaction has apparently made us in violation of the Sections with regard to registering a foreign LLC. This letter is to further request that potential statutory penalties be waived so that the entities may be properly registered with the Florida Secretary of State's Office and be in compliance with Florida law. Thank you for your consideration in this request. If we can provide further information or answer any questions you may have, please feel free to contact the undersigned.

Very truly yours,

David R. Mitchell
