Dear Sir or Madam:

I am trying to get a business set up in preparation for my retirement from the military. Enclosed are the application forms, a money order to cover the fees and the original certificate of existence. I called your office about the certificate of existence as I am well beyond the 90-day date. Uncle Sam's travel service contacted me shortly after I applied for the Nevada LLC and told me I had won an all expense paid vacation abroad (again)..... The person in your office that I spoke to said that sometimes the 90-day could be waived, especially if the delay was military service related. If that can be done, I would appreciate it. Please let me know if I've omitted something or made any mistakes in this process, as I readily admit I'm new to this. Thanks and take care.

Sincerely,
