Dear Ms. Thomas;

I received your letter dated January 18, 2006 (see attached Letter Number: 506A00003464) indicating that our Foreign Corporation application was "on hold" pending receipt of the re-completion of the Foreign Corporation application on the 'proper' form.

I attempted to contact you on several occasions to ask questions related to this application, however, each of the dozens of times I called I received only a 'busy' signal. In any case, I believe I now have the application completed properly for your approval and filing.

As the checks submitted earlier total the required $160.00, I have not enclosed additional funds. If this is incorrect, please let me know what additional fees are required and I will submit the funds as quickly as possible. As I've had such a difficult time attempting to talk with you by telephone, I would appreciate a telephone call if additional information or funds is required.

Thanks for your assistance and personal attention in this matter. If you have questions or require additional information to process this application, please call me via my cell-phone at (407) 463-2548 or via my office line at (407) 833-0422.

Sincerely;

Daniel C. Honerbrink
