Our records do not reflect that you were charged, and your filing did not go through. As it is after May 1st, you cannot file online without being charged the late fee; however, if you will mail your hardcopy form with a check to our office this week, you will not be charged the late fee.

Yesterday, April 30, 2002, I tried to file my Uniform Business Report on line. After completion of all the information I received a message that said "please wait while the transaction is processed" - or something similar to that. I waited for approximately 8 hours and no other message was received. I finally had to shut down my computer.

My question is: did the report go through? Since I did attempt to file on time, I am rather upset that I may be charged with the $400.00 late fee.

I look forward to hearing from you.
