We have received your document for HAGERTY CLASSIC MARINE INSURANCE AGENCY, LLC and your check(s) totaling $125.00. However, the document has not been filed and is being retained in this office for the following:

Unfortunately, the enclosed certified copy does not meet our filing requirements. We require a certificate of existence or certificate of good standing, which usually consists of a single sheet of paper, that clearly reflects the entity is a valid entity in its home state/country. You can obtain the certificate of existence or certificate of good standing from the same office that provided you with the certified copy.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6043.

Dear Sir / Madam:

RE: Applications for foreign LLCs to transact in Florida

With respect to the above file references and attached correspondence; please find enclosed the additional supporting exhibits requested by your offices. They include certificates of good standing for each of the LLCs, plus a newly submitted "amendment to authority" form for HagertyPlus, LLC.

Please note that the Delaware Division of Corporations state that effective July 1, 2006, all certificates from the Delaware Division of Corporations database will no longer be generated on preprinted forms with blue ink. Instead, they are all printed in black ink on standard white paper inclusive of the Secretary's seal and signature. They provide a means for independent verification of their certifications online at their website here: <https://delecorp.delaware.gov/tin/CertificatesValidation.jsp>

The details they request to enable the verification are noted on the certified documents. The "authentication number" is the number highlighted on the right, the "file number" is the number highlighted on the left.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions regarding this request.

Sincerely,

Daniel J. Beutler, CPA
