Dear Tammy,

This letter is to inform you that we are filing our foreign entity with the state of Florida. As per conversation, and as an overview, we had dissolved our Florida entity known as (GST PRO DJ PRODUCTION, LLC.) with Legal Zoom and wanted to re-establish it with another LLC company that is located in the state of Nevada, known as Corporate Service Center – 101 Convention Center Dr. Los Vegas, Nevada 89109.

We have had this business and business name in the State of Florida since 2002 to present day and operated as Sole Proprietor and resides in the State of Florida. However, we decided to incorporate the business in the summer of 2010 through Legal Zoom. We were not happy with using Legal Zoom for our LLC, and found another company to do our LLC.

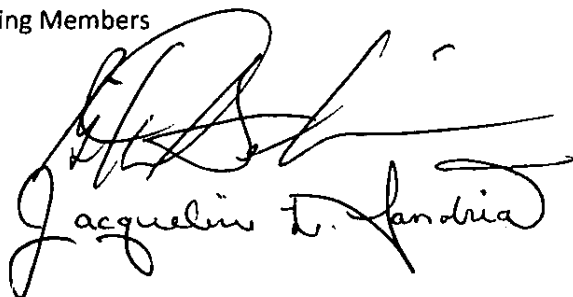

In doing so we had to file dissolution papers with the State of Florida, and put it under a Foreign Limited Liability Company since we were going with the State of Nevada in order to do our LLC.

We got a letter stating we needed to write a letter to include with re-filing again in the State of Florida. We have and still own the business and the business name in the State of Florida as before. We are stating that we have no intention of revoking the dissolution, and therefore, release the name for use to the other entity.

We have already sent in our payment of $130.00 and are re-submitting the papers to file in the State of Florida. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Gilbert & Jacqueline L. Sanabria
