SUMMARY FINAL JUDGMENT AGAINST DEFENDANTS ACTIVELIGHT, INC. F/K/A ACTIVISION TV, INC., AD MEDIA DISPLAYS, INC., LOCKE CONSULTING GROUP, INC., CONNECT HDTV, INC., ACTIVELIGHT TV, LLC, ACTIVISION DISPLAYS, INC., ADCO FINANCIAL CORP., AND DENICE HETKOWSKI

This matter came before the Court upon the Plaintiff State of Florida's Motion for Summary Final Judgment Against Defendants Activelight, Inc. f/k/a Activision TV, Inc., Ad Media Displays, Inc., Locke Consulting Group, Inc., Connect HDTV, Inc., Activelight TV, LLC, Activision Displays, Inc., ADCO Financial Corp., and Denice Hetkowski ("Motion"). The Court, having reviewed the Motion, the affidavits and other evidence previously submitted, the pleadings and papers filed in this matter, and being otherwise fully advised in the premises, the Court finds as follows:

1. On February 14, 2020 this Court entered a default against Defendants Activelight, Inc. f/k/a Activision TV, Inc., Ad Media Displays, Inc., Locke Consulting Group, Inc., Connect HDTV, Inc., Activelight TV, LLC, Activision Displays, Inc., ADCO Financial Corp., and Denice Hetkowski ("Defaulted Defendants" ¹) for their failure to defend this action as pursuant to Rule 1.500(b) of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. (Dkt. 314) ("Default").

2. The Defaulted Defendants, per the First Amended Complaint (Dkt. 105), are as follows:

- a. Defendant Hetkowski is a natural person that resided in Florida since at least January, 2012. Hetkowski was a direct participant in the improper dealings alleged in the First Amended Complaint, and conspired with other principals to commit unlawful acts. Hetkowski was a director and officer of the business-entity Defendants (defendants Activelight, Inc. f/k/a Activision TV, Inc., Ad Media Displays, Inc., Locke Consulting Group, Inc., Connect HDTV, Inc., Activelight TV, LLC, Activision Displays, Inc., ADCO Financial Corp.). She began employment with one or more of the business-entity Defendants since at least January 1, 2003. (§ 6)
- b. Defendant Activelight, Inc. (f/k/a Activision TV, Inc.), a foreign corporation, was incorporated in Delaware on or about October 10, 2006. It was registered to transact business in the State of Florida on or about September 7, 2007. Its authority to transact business in the State of Florida was revoked on or about September 25, 2015. Its headquarters and last known principal place of business is 5400 Yahl Street, Suite C and/or D, Naples, Florida 34109. (§ 7).
- c. Defendant Ad Media Displays, Inc., a foreign corporation, was incorporated in Wyoming on or about July 6, 1999. It was registered to transact business in Florida since on or about February 13, 2004. On or about January 11, 2008, it withdrew its authority to transact business or conduct affairs in Florida. On or about August 1, 2013, it filed another application to transact business in Florida, falsely stating that the date it first transacted business in Florida was “none.” On or about February 23, 2015 (shortly after the filing of this lawsuit), it again withdrew its authority to transact business or conduct affairs in Florida. Its headquarters and last known principal place of business is 5400 Yahl Street, Suite G, Naples, Florida 34109. (¶ 8).

- d. Defendant Activision Displays, Inc. (f/n/a Adco Leasing, Inc., f/n/a Adco Financial, Inc., f/n/a Activision TV, Inc.), a foreign corporation, was incorporated in Nevada on or about October 23, 2000. It had facilities in Naples, Florida, and conducted its marketing and sales activities from Florida, but does not appear to have registered to transact business in Florida. Its status as a Nevada corporation is ‘revoked.’ (¶ 9).
- e. Defendant Connect HDTV, Inc. (f/n/a Activision Systems, Inc. and f/n/a Activision TV Inc.), a domestic Florida corporation, was incorporated on or about August 31, 2006. It was administratively dissolved on or about September 28, 2012 for failure to file its annual report. Its headquarters and principal place of business was located at 5400 Yahl Street, Suite C, Naples, Florida 34109. (¶ 10).
- f. Defendant Activelight TV, LLC, a foreign limited liability company, was organized under Delaware law on or about November 16, 2007. It was authorized to transact business in the State of Florida on or about April 11, 2011. Its authority to transact business in Florida was administratively dissolved on or about September 27, 2013 for failure to file its annual report. Its headquarters and principal place of business was located at 5400 Yahl Street, Suite C, Naples, Florida 34109, and 2089 Pine Ridge Road, Naples, Florida 34109. (§ 11).

g. Defendant ADCO Financial Corp., a foreign corporation, was incorporated in Nevada on or about February 7, 2005. Its status as a Nevada corporation is “revoked.” (§ 12).

h. Defendant Locke Consulting Group, Inc., a foreign corporation, was incorporated in Nevada on or about December 22, 1998. It was registered to transact business in Florida on or about December 5, 2002. Its registration to transact business in Florida was revoked on or about September 16, 2005 for failure to file its annual report. It filed another application to transact business in Florida on or about March 24, 2011, and falsely stated that the first date it transacted business in Florida was March 1, 2011. It was reinstated to transact business in Florida on or about March 24, 2011. Its headquarters and last known principal place of business is 5400 Yahl Street, Suite C, Naples, Florida 34109. Its status as a Nevada corporation is “revoked.” (§ 13).

3. Once the Default was entered, the Defaulted Defendants had no further standing to contest the factual allegations of the Plaintiffs claim for relief. See Wiseman v. Stocks, 527 So. 2d 904, 906 (Fla. 1st DCA 1988). Liability is conclusively adjudicated by the default. See 5 Fla. Prac., Civil Practice § 9:5 (2020 ed.).

4. Specifically, the Default conclusively established the civil liability against the remaining Defaulted Defendants for violations of the Florida RICO Act in this enforcement action. See First Am. Compl. Counts I and III (Dkt. 105) (filed Oct. 15, 2016).

5. The Default also conclusively established the civil liability against the business-entity defendants for violations of the Florida Securities and Investor Protection Act (FSIPA) and for violations of the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act (FDUTPA) in this enforcement action. See Am. Compl. Counts IV and V, respectively (Dkt. 105) (filed Oct. 15, 2016).

6. The remaining task for this Court is to enter a final judgment, and apply the equitable remedies of the Florida RICO Act against the Defaulted Defendants, and to apply the equitable remedies of the FSIPA and FDUTPA against the business-entity defendants.

7. Final judgments after default may be entered by the court at any time. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.500(e). "If it is necessary to take an account or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter to enable the court to enter judgment or to effectuate it, the court may receive affidavits, make references, or conduct hearings as it deems necessary and must accord a right of trial by jury to the parties when required by the Constitution or any statute." Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.500(e).

8. No jury trial is required for the remedies in the Motion. "[I]t is well established that where the right or remedy is equitable in nature there is no right to a jury trial. Hawkins v. Rellim Inv. Co., 92 Fla. 784, 110 So. 350 (Fla.1926); Hathorne v. Panama Park Co., 44 Fla. 194, 32 So. 812 (Fla.1902); Hughes v. Hannah, 39 Fla. 365, 22 So. 613 (Fla.1897); Wiggins v. Williams, 36 Fla. 637, 18 So. 859 (Fla.1896). Thus, actions in equity do not fall within the protection of Article I, Section 22, of the Florida Constitution (1968) guaranteeing the right to a jury trial." Hansard Const. Corp. v. Rite Aid of Florida, Inc., 783 So. 2d 307, 308 (Fla. 4th DCA 2001).

9. The Defaulting Defendants have failed to defend the allegations against them in the 137-page, 206-paragraph First Amended Complaint. Thus, all of the allegations contained therein are hereby established for the purposes of entering this final judgment. Specifically, the Defaulting Defendants operated a series of schemes whereby they obtained millions from investors based on wholesale misrepresentations about virtually every aspect of running a business. See Motion ¶¶ 10-12. The Defaulting Defendants' failure to defend now constitutes undisputed facts that since at least 1999 they obtained $8,148,673.88 from investors based on misrepresentations, deceit, and fraud. These monies constitute ill-gotten gains and are losses directly attributable to the actions of the Defaulting Defendants, and are causally connected to the causes of action.

10. This Court hereby enters all findings necessary to effectuate this final judgment, including findings under section 895.05(1)(e), Florida Statutes. Specifically, the court finds that the board members and/or managerial agents (including Defendant Hetkowski and as further alleged in the First Amended Complaint) acting on behalf of the business-entity defendants, in conducting the affairs of the business-entity defendants, authorized or engaged in conduct in violation of section 895.03, Florida Statutes ("Prohibited activities and defense" under the Florida RICO Act), and that, for the prevention of future criminal activity, the public interest requires judicial dissolution of Florida corporation Connect HDTV, Inc. and revocation of the certificates to transact business of Activelight, Inc. (f/k/a Activision TV, Inc.), Ad Media Displays, Inc., Locke Consulting Group, Inc., Activelight TV, LLC, Activision Displays, Inc., and ADCO Financial Corp.

11. There is no genuine issue of any material fact, and Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law.

IT IS THEREUPON ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

13. This Court has jurisdiction over the Defaulting Defendants and service of process has been validly effected against said Defendants.

The parties represent that they have the authority to enter into this Consent Decree.

Now, therefore, upon the consent of the parties hereto,

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. The DEPARTMENT is an agency of the State of Florida and an enforcing authority of the Florida RICO (Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organization) Act, Chapter 895, Florida Statutes; the Florida Securities and Investor Protection Act, Chapter 517, Florida Statutes; the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act (Chapter 501, Part II), Florida Statutes; and the Florida Anti-Fencing Act, sections 812.012-812.037, Florida Statutes.

Stat.

I. ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

4. In its complaint filed on December 22, 2014 (Dkt. 2), as amended on October 16, 2015 (Dkt. 105), the DEPARTMENT alleges the DEFENDANTS violated the Florida RICO (Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organization) Act, Chapter 895, Florida Statutes. The DEPARTMENT also brought a count under the Florida Securities and Investor Protection Act, alleging multiple violations of section 517.301, Florida Statutes against GOTHARD and the business-entity Defendants. The DEPARTMENT also brought a count under the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act (Chapter 501, Part II, Florida Statutes) ("FDUTPA") against GOTHARD and the business-entity Defendants. Finally, the DEPARTMENT also alleged a civil theft claim against Defendant GOTHARD.

II. DEFINITIONS

5. As used in this Consent Decree:

6. "Person" means any natural person; public or private corporation, whether or not organized for profit; partnership; association; cooperative; joint venture; trust; sole proprietorship; or other legal entity. With respect to a business entity, the term "person" includes any natural person acting formally or informally as an employee, officer, agent, attorney or other representative of the business entity.

7. "Investors" means any Person that gave, or committed to give, monies or property to the business-entity Defendants with an expectation of an economic benefit, including but not limited to any shareholders, noteholders, or secured or unsecured creditors.

8. "Security(ies)" means a security as defined under section 517.021(21), Florida Statutes (2019).

III. REASONS FOR ENTERING CONSENT DECREE

9. The DEPARTMENT and Defendant GOTHARD have consented to the entry of this Consent Decree.

10. The parties expressly acknowledge that this Consent Decree does not resolve any issues that are not the subject of this civil enforcement suit, including but not limited to any criminal proceedings (and/or any appeals), including any proceedings by the Florida Office of Statewide Prosecution.

11. This Court, pursuant to Chapters 895, 517, 501, 812 and/or 817, Florida Statutes, has determined there is no just reason for delay in entering this Consent Decree.

12. The DEPARTMENT hereby acknowledges having received from Defendant GOTHARD financial affidavits regarding his financial condition. Specifically, the DEPARTMENT has financial affidavits dated December 15, 2018; March 25, 2019; June 25, 2019; and September 28, 2019. Additionally, the DEPARTMENT acknowledges having reviewed Defendant

GOTHARD's affidavit of indigency dated August 15, 2016 filed in State of Florida v. Gothard, 2016-CF-1194 (Collier Co. Cir. Ct.). Based on these financial affidavits, the DEPARTMENT acknowledges that Defendant GOTHARD's cash assets during this period range from a low of $150.00 to a high of $350.00, and his liabilities currently exceed $330,000. The DEPARTMENT further acknowledges that Defendant GOTHARD does not claim an ownership interest, stocks, shares, or membership interest of any kind in the business-entity Defendants in this matter.

13. The DEPARTMENT's agreement to and the Court's approval of this Consent Decree are expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Defendant GOTHARD's financial affidavits, all of which Defendant GOTHARD asserts are truthful, accurate, and complete. Defendant GOTHARD and the DEPARTMENT stipulate that Defendant GOTHARD's financial affidavits provide the basis for the monetary judgment stated herein and that the DEPARTMENT has relied on the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Defendant GOTHARD's financial affidavits.

14. The declared purpose of the Florida RICO Act was to target organized crime and its infiltration and corruption of legitimate business. See Hagopian v. Justice Admin. Comm'n, 18 So. 3d 625, 640 (Fla. 2d DCA 2009). Any circuit court may, after making due provision for the rights of innocent persons, enjoin violations of the provisions of section 895.03, Florida Statutes, by issuing appropriate orders and judgments, including, but not limited to: ordering any defendant to divest himself or herself of any interest in any enterprise, including real property; and imposing reasonable restrictions upon the future activities or investments of any defendant, including, but not limited to, prohibiting any defendant from engaging in the same type of endeavor as the enterprise in which the defendant was engaged in violation of the provisions of section 895.03, Florida Statutes. See § 895.05, Fla. Stat.

15. "The legislative purpose of the Florida Securities and Investor Protection Act was, as its title makes clear, to protect the public from fraudulent and deceptive practices in the sale and marketing of securities." Arthur Young & Co. v. Mariner Corp., 630 So. 2d 1199, 1203 (Fla. 4th DCA 1994) (citations omitted). "As such, it is to be given a broad and liberal interpretation to effectuate its purpose." Id. In addition to all other means provided by law for enforcing any of the provisions of chapter 517, when the Attorney General, upon complaint or otherwise, has reason to believe that a person has engaged or is engaged in any act or practice constituting a violation of section 517.301, Florida Statutes, the Attorney General may investigate and bring an action to enforce this provision under section 517.191, Florida Statutes. Such an action may be brought to obtain injunctive relief, restitution, civil penalties, and any remedies provided for section 517.191, Florida Statutes. Under section 517.191, Florida Statutes, when it appears that a person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of chapter 517, the Attorney General can enjoin such person or persons from continuing such fraudulent practices or engaging therein or doing any act or acts in furtherance thereof or in violation of chapter 517.

16. The purpose of FDUTPA is to "protect the consuming public and legitimate business enterprises from those who engage in unfair methods of competition, or unconscionable, deceptive, or unfair acts or practices in the conduct of any trade or commerce." § 501.202(2), Fla. Stat. (2018). To that end, "reasonable restrictions upon the future activities of any defendant to impede her or him from engaging in or establishing the same type of endeavor" are permitted by FDUTPA, and courts may "order any defendant to divest herself or himself of any interest in any enterprise.” § 501.207(3), Fla. Stat. (2018). Prohibiting business activities is constitutional when the limitation is rationally related to the State’s objective of preventing deceptive practices. Fraternal Order of Police v. Dept. of State, 392 So. 2d 1296, 1302 (Fla. 1980).

17. A permanent injunction is appropriate.

18. Defendant GOTHARD enters into this Consent Decree freely and without coercion. Defendant GOTHARD acknowledges that he has read, understands, and is prepared to abide by the provisions of this Consent Decree and has had the opportunity to review the same with counsel of his choosing prior to entry of this Consent Decree.

19. The Parties stipulated and agreed to this Consent Decree without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law, to settle and resolve all matters in dispute arising from the Complaint to the date of this Consent Decree.

20. Defendant GOTHARD waives all rights to seek judicial review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Consent Decree.

21. This Consent Decree is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law, including any proceedings that the DEPARTMENT may initiate to enforce this Consent Decree.

22. The injunctive language and the monetary components set forth below apply to Defendant GOTHARD.

IV. JURISDICTION

23. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter herein, and over Defendant GOTHARD.

V. APPLICABILITY

24. This Consent Decree does not release or impair the rights or causes of action any nonparty to this action may have against Defendant GOTHARD, including but not limited to Investors.
