Re: Annual report filing

To Whom It May Concern:

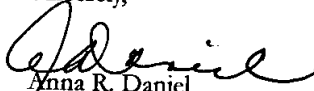

I recently received correspondence from the Dept. of Revenue concerning our corporation's tax return for the year 2000. In researching the information for their request, I discovered that I had never received the current renewal for the enclosed form. I called the Dept. of Revenue and they told me to go online, print the form, complete it, mail it to you explaining what happened, and send the normal $150 check.

The person from the Dept. of Revenue looked up the info and discovered that you don't have the proper mailing address. I know that when we moved from Florida in 1999, our accountant signed as registered agent and the proper forms were mailed to you. I don't know why you don't have our current mailing address in the computer.

I am enclosing a check in the amount of $158.75, please send me a certificate of status.

If anything else is necessary, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Anna R. Daniel
Secretary/Treasurer
