To Whom It May Concern:

Our company, Atlantic Recovery Solutions, LLC, was registered on 07/15/2013 as a Domestic LLC in Florida. The Articles of Organization that we received from your state had a document number L13000099844. This was a mistake that did not come to our attention until now. We were supposed to have been registered as a Foreign LLC, as our office is located in New York.

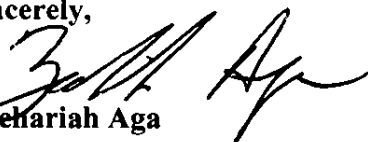

After calling the Secretary of State's office, I was instructed to dissolve this entity and reapply as a foreign LLC. I was assured that we would be able to keep our same business name as long as we provided this written consent explaining the situation.

Please find enclosed our application to dissolve our company as a Florida LLC, and reapply as a foreign LLC which is located in NYS.

Where the problem may lie is the fact that we also obtained a Consumer Collection Agency license on 08/29/2013 (license # CCA9903195) while having been registered incorrectly as a domestic llc. I am under the impression that as long as the enclosed documents are filed, this will not affect our license, because it already lists our correct New York State information on it. Please advise us if this is not correct so that we may fix the problem as soon as possible.

Please allow this letter to serve as written consent to make the above mentioned changes. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Zachariah Aga
President
