Question #4: Supplemental Response

The Application by Foreign Limited Liability Company for Authorization to Transact Business in Florida requires the applicant to state the date it first transacted business in Florida, if prior to registration.

Florida Statutes Section 607.1501(2)(a)–(m) provides a non-exhaustive list of activities which do not constitute transacting business. Upon review, Empire Freight Logistics, LLC (the “Company”) has determined that this list does not fully encompass the Company’s contacts with or activities within the state. Given that there is no comprehensive guidance with respect to contacts which do constitute transacting business in the state, the Company has undertaken an extensive review of its contacts with the state of Florida in an attempt to determine whether it has transacted business in Florida, and if so, the date it first transacted business in the state.

Taking into consideration the facts outlined below, and the limited nature of the contacts, the Company believes it has not transacted business in the state of Florida within the meaning of the Florida statute. We have provided a summary of the Company’s contacts below for the Florida Department of State’s review.

Remote Employee and Services

The Company has one employee (the “Employee”) that has resided and worked in Florida for a limited time as further described below.

The Employee moved from New York to Florida and began working for the Company remotely from the Employee’s home in Florida on August 20, 2021. The work the Employee performs for the Company includes handling freight claims with respect to the Company’s freight brokerage business. This individual does not hold any professional licenses in Florida and performs all work remotely. Therefore, the limited and minimal contacts of this individual’s employment as a remote employee does not constitute transacting business in Florida.

Based on the foregoing, the Company believes it has not transacted business in the state of Florida within the meaning of the Florida statute. In the alternative, should the Florida Department of State believe that the Company has been transacting business in the state of Florida, it is the Company’s position that any transacting of business occurred no earlier than on August 20, 2021, which is the first date the Company had an employee working remotely within the state of Florida.
