Dear Mrs:

In response to your letter #698A0037808, Please find attached our check number 468 in the amount of $150. for the filing fee of the corporation.

I apologize for the delay but as I explained in previous correspondence dated 7/3/98, the original document got lost in the mail and as of today I have not heard from the US postal service on the matter.

Thanks for your understanding.

Sincerely yours,

Nhora Mejia, M & M Art Studio, Inc.

Dear Mrs:

Back on April 28 I filed the Corporation Annual Report with a check for $165.00 copies attached and to my surprise I just received this second notice for not filing the Corporation Annual Report.

I used to believe that every letter or document you send out will reach their destination without any doubt of it. I always thought that the principles of every single organization is what we all stand for. I failed in requesting a proof of delivery with signature of the receiver, as I did at this time, and now I don't have either the check back or the original document. The answer when I called US Postal Service spokesman Mr. Carillo was, sorry there has been many complaints lately of lost mail and that they are conducting an investigation on the matter.

So, now here I am kindly appealing for your understanding in this case, since I have being a prompt payer from 1987. Please help me out to solve this matter, I would really appreciate it.

Sincerely yours,

Nhora Mejia, M & M Art Studio, Inc.

P/D: A new check is attached along with copies of the mailed.
