To Whom It May Concern:

In accordance with a conversation with an employee of your office last week about re-instatement of my company (M50438) from its position of being dissolved in 1995, I have enclosed the amount she indicated along with the corporate re-instatement form.

I explained that from 1987 until 1994 I paid and filed my annual report every year. Each year I received a notice, changed the form as required or not and sent in the payment for the annual report fee. However, I did not receive any notice in 1994 and didn't receive any subsequent notice of dissolution either. At the time I didn't think any thing of it as in political campaigns in those years some candidates were talking about abolishing the corporate report fees and replacing them with some kind of other fee or tax. I assumed that something to that effect had taken place, and in all the years after 1994 never received any correspondence from the state that would have alerted me to the dissolved status of my company.

Only recently, after suffering damage in the Florida hurricanes of 2004 and applying for a SBA loan, did I learn that the corporation had been administratively dissolved.

The lady I spoke with at your office last week advised me to send the enclosed payment and to request a waiver of the re-instatement fee. I am doing that and thank you in advance for any consideration you can give me in that regard.
