Re: Document # M53624 for Curb Enterprises Inc.

To whom it may concern:

This letter is in response to a Second Notice I received with regards to the renewal of my license. I received the notice on Saturday, July 9th. Upon receipt I contacted your office and advised one of your representatives that I had never received the First Notice, and I didn't feel it was fair to have to pay a late fee. The young lady I spoke to suggested that I send a letter of explanation along with a check in the amount of $150.00.

Enclosed please find the above-mentioned check, along with the Uniform Business Report for the year 2000.

I very much regret this confusion and sincerely hope you will understand my position. Had I received the First Notice, I would have promptly submitted the payment to avoid such a large penalty fee.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Rene Curbelo
