Dear Sir or Madam:

I recently received the enclosed "Second Notice" 1999 Profit Corporation Annual Report. Upon checking my records, I discovered that I had already submitted the 1999 report on January 15, 1999 along with my company check for $150 as required. A further check revealed, however, that the check had never cleared my bank. I can only assume that the check and annual report were lost somewhere between my mailbox and yours.

At the suggestion of one your taxpayer service people who answered my call this morning, I am enclosing the Annual Report along with the regular $150.00 annual report fee. This letter is my appeal of the additional $400.00 "late filing" fee. The basis of my appeal is my good faith effort to file the Annual Report on a timely basis. I hope that you will agree that the penalty is not appropriate in these circumstances and will will waive it for this year.

Please let me know if I can provide any additional information.

Very truly yours
