Ladies and or Gentlemen:

We are the accountants for the above mentioned taxpayer. After looking through the taxpayer's records, we found no evidence from them that they received the 2001 Uniform Business Report back in the beginning of 2001. If you check the company's history, you will find that the company has always paid the filing fee on time. Furthermore, the company had their name changed from Chromatek of Broward, Inc. to Chromatek Photo Imaging, Inc., and that could be the reason for not getting the Uniform Business Report in first place. The taxpayer has attached $150.00, the original filing fee, that was advised by a member of your division. To clear up any confusion, the check being sent has the name of the old company because the company is still waiting for their new checks.

Thank you for your cooperation in this important matter, and we look forward to your immediate reply.

Very truly yours,
GRUBER AND ASSOCIATES, P.A.
