Dear Sir/Madam;

In speaking with your Uniform Business Report officer on the telephone today I am writing you this letter to accompany my corporation filing fee.

This morning my husband and I went to our CPA's office with our tax information and low and behold our UBR was in our tax box. I have always filed on time for the last 15 years and was shocked to see that it had been misplaced. I am attending to this immediately and requesting that you would please waive the penalty for lateness. The representative suggested that I attach this letter to the regular payment fee and make my request for leniency. We have twin daughters in college and every penny counts now more than ever.

We appreciate whatever you can do. Thank you in advance.

Sincerely,

Christine K. Fullom, DST
