Florida Department of State Division of Corporations PO Box 6327 Tallahassee, FL 32314

To Whom It May Concern:

As soon as I received the 2nd notice for the annual corporation report for W.A. Properties, Inc., I called the Dept. of State explaining the entire situation of not ever receiving the 1st annual report. She told me to send in a check for $165.00 with this letter of explanation to you. All of the 1st notices for Mr. Ahern's corporation reports for 1997 were completed April 16, 1997, and mailed immediately. We noticed the fee had gone up considerably this year for late reports (from $225 to $550), so we made sure all were sent out in mid April. Copies of the other reports are enclosed.

We never received a "1st notice packet" for W.A. Properties, or we would have sent it with all the other corporation reports of Mr. Aherns. We would not have intentionally left one corporation report out. Due to the fact massive paperwork runs through this office each year, we pay bills by paperwork or invoice and do not have time to investigate what bills we should be receiving. Since the 1st notice for W.A. Properties (1997) was evidently lost in the mail, I will make it a point next year when the 1st notices for the annual corporation reports come in, that we have packets for all of Mr. Ahern's corporations.

I hope you will understand our situation. Had we received the 1st notice with all of the others, it certainly would have been included with all of the first reports mailed in mid April. Thank you for your sincere consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Diane Loftus

Secretary
