To Whom It May Concern:

In regards to your letter pretaining to Dryman Inc. reference number M86969 uniform business report, the paper work that was received in July was the only notice I received. Being that this is something given out once a year it was not something that I would miss (like my phone bill or gas bill), I can tell you I would never not pay $150.00 as oppose to $500.00 that makes no sense. I know that either last year or the year before I received someone elses form in my p.o. box and call up your office so they were not late in their payment. I would like you to consider waiving the penalty being that it was not the second notice I received, but the first. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Dawn M. Brett
