Dear Madam/Sir:

This letter is in reference to V.L. McIntyre & Associates, Inc. Annual Report. A check was originally mailed to your office in May 2004 submitting a check for $150 with Annual Report Notice. I received correspondence from your office in June 2004 attaching 2004 For Profit Annual Report. The late registration of $400 was not mention in the correspondence. I signed the Annual Report June 10, 2004 and submitted it to your office. Your office submits me the enclosed correspondence dated June 21, 2004 requesting a late fee of $400. The process is confusing with the card being mailed separately from the Annual Report.

V.L. McIntyre & Associates, Inc. has been in operation for approximately fifteen years. As president of the company, I have strived to survive. I have made my living as a speaker and consultant for years. The years of 2002 and 2003 have been extremely challenging financially for my company. This makes it impossible for me to pay a high lump sum late payment of $400. Any consideration you could give me in this matter would be appreciated. I really beg your consideration. I do not want to see my company dissolved.

If you should have questions concerning this matter, please call me at (850) 893-8677. Your cooperation and support are appreciated

Sincerely,

Vera Lynette McIntyre
President
V.L. McIntyre & Associates, Inc.
