Dear Madam or Sir:

We recently received a second and final notice of the annual report for the above referenced company. This report and filing fee were mailed April 12th to ensure that your office would receive them by the May 1st deadline. Copies of both are included for your review. Upon receiving your notice, I reviewed our bank statements and found your check to still be outstanding.

Per my phone conversation with Lee Rivers, I was instructed to send you another check for the $188.75 filing fee and the $400 late fee would be waived.

Obviously our original report and check have been lost.

Should you need anything further, please contact me directly. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

GOLFSOUTH
