Dear Sirs,

I apologize for the delay in sending this check to you. We suffered a death in the family after a three-month illness and since we are a very small corporation some things were misplaced. I did not even realize that this had not been filed until I received your notice.

I hope due to unusual circumstances you can accept this check for the initial filing amount and for this time we can dispense with the penalties.

I know this is not your normal procedure and I assure you that this will not happen again.

Sincerely,

Bruce Tripp
