Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 1. GENERAL. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by, or in the right of, the corporation), by reasons of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act on good faith and in a manner which such person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. ACTIONS BY OR IN THE RIGHT OF THE CORPORATION.

In any action, suit or proceeding, threatened, pending or completed, by or in the right of the corporation, indemnification shall be made as provided in Section 1 of this Article VI, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his/her duty to the corporation, unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnify for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

Section 3. HOW EFFECTED. Indemnification pursuant to Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VI, unless pursuant to a determination by a court, shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that the indemnification is proper in the circumstances because the indemnified person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 hereof. Such determination shall be made by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action, suite or proceeding to which the indemnification relates or by the stockholders by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of stockholders who were not parties to the action, suite or proceeding to which the indemnification relates. If a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VI, or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the corporation shall be obligated upon proper application to indemnify such person in respect of expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Section 4. PREPAYMENT OF EXPENSES. Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon a preliminary determination following one of the procedures set forth in Section 3 of this Article VI that such indemnified person meets the applicable standard of conduct referred to therein and after receipt of a undertaking satisfactory in form and substance to the corporation that such person will promptly repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that the person is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this Article VI.

Section 5. NON-EXCLUSIVITY. The indemnification provided by this Article VI shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in any official capacity and as to action in any other capacity while holding office with the corporation. The Board of Directors may, at any time, approve indemnification of any other person that the corporation has the power by law to indemnify, including, without limitation, employees and agents of the corporation. The indemnification provided for in this Article VI shall continue as to any person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall insure to the benefit of such person's heirs and personal representatives.
