ARTICLE III PURPOSES:

This organization has been organized for the purposes of research, investigation, information and education of the Cuban reality.

Our mission statement reads:

To establish a vehicle to incorporate the new generation of Cubans, both inside and outside of our nation or those who feel ethnically Cuban to join forces with the objective of establishing a society in our country based on liberty, justice and democracy. Where the law prevails above all the people, this organization is open to all Cubans and non-Cubans that believe in these principals.

Objective:

- a) Gather evidence and testimonials of family separation, both present and past cases.
- b) Establish an ongoing database of this documentation.
- Disseminate information to local, national and international media and serve as a resource of the Cuban reality.
- d) To be alert to local, national and international press concerning these cases and respond to editorial and other published opinions.
- e) Participate and create roundtables, forums and other forms of interactive discussion and education.
- f) To create a vehicle for the "New Generation" of Cubans who are inside, outside or feel ethnically Cuban to congregate.
- g) To create a vehicle for non-Cubans to participate and establish a bridge of communication and solidarity with the Cuban reality.
- h) Develop a vehicle of involvement for the new generation of activist.
