No member, trustee, director or officer of the Corporation or any private person shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the Corporation's assets on dissolution of the Corporation.

9. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except to the extent permitted by Section 501(h) of the Code) and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or the distributing of statements in connection with) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

10. In the event of dissolution of the Corporation, all of the remaining assets and property of the Corporation shall, after payment of or due provision for all necessary expenses thereof, be distributed to organizations as shall then be in existence and qualify under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code in accordance with a plan approved by the Corporation and filed with the Department of State of the State of Florida.

11. In accordance with Section 508 (e) of the Code, if in any taxable year the Corporation is a private foundation as defined in Section 509 of the Code, then in such year:

(A) The Corporation shall distribute such amounts for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to subject the Corporation to tax on undistributed income under Section 4942 of the Code;

(B) The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing which is subject to tax under Section 4941 of the Code;

(C) The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings which are subject to tax under Section 4943 of the Code;

(D) The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code;

H00000007710

H00000007710

(E) The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures which are subject to tax under Section 4945 of the Code.

12. All references herein to the Code are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and shall be deemed to include both amendments thereto and statutes which succeed the provisions thereof (i.e., the corresponding provisions of the future United States Internal Revenue Laws).
