ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT
OF
ANGELS OF THE CARIBBEAN, INCORPORATED
a Non-Profit Corporation

There being no Members in the Corporation; pursuant to Florida Statutes, The Articles of Incorporation of the above named Corporation are hereby amended by the Board of Directors this 27th day of April 2000 as follows:

ARTICLE III is deleted and a new ARTICLE III is substituted therefor as follows:

The corporation is organized for the following purposes:

(a) Angels of the Caribbean is a Not for Profit organization whose goal is to provide Life Saving, Search and Rescue efforts to people in Distress at sea in the Florida Straits, and adjacent waters. We will provide the extra effort needed to ensure a much greater probability of rescue to all persons/mariners in distress while at sea, with special attention to the Poor, Disadvantaged, and those who are fleeing Political Oppression.

(b) To cooperate with other charitable organizations, in order to provide the extra effort needed to ensure a much greater probability of rescue to all persons/mariners in distress while at sea.

(c) To receive, maintain and accept, as assets of the corporation, any property, whether real, personal or mixed, by way of gift, bequest, devise or purchase, from any person, firm, trust or corporation, to be held, administered and disposed of in accordance with and pursuant to the provisions of this Charter of Incorporation; but no gift, bequest, devise or purchase of any such property shall be received or made and accepted if it is conditioned or limited in such manner as shall require the disposition of income or principal to any organization other than a "charitable organization" or for any purpose other than "charitable purposes" within the respective meanings of such quoted terms as defined in Articles IX and X, or which would jeopardize the Federal Income Tax exemption of this corporation pursuant to Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as now in force or acts in amendment thereof or substitution therefor.

(d) To provide for humanitarian relief and rescue in such other ways as are consistent with the charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code, as amended.

(e) The purpose of the Corporation shall be exclusively, charitable within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code, as amended.

A new Article VII is added as follows:

ARTICLE VII

The corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at a time and in a manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4982 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The corporation shall hold and manage all property received and accepted by it to be administered hereunder, and shall pay over, transfer, distribute, administer, or otherwise deal with the principal and income thereof, in such manner or manners, and at such time or times, as in the judgment of the Directors shall be suited to carrying out the foregoing purposes, including without hereby limiting the generality of the foregoing language, the acquisition by purchase, gift, rental, or otherwise, and the management, care, sale or lease, or other disposition of, real property, and interest in real property, including buildings and other improvements thereon, the construction, reconstruction, repair and/or alteration of such buildings and other improvements, the acquisition by purchase, gift, rental or otherwise, and the preparation, sale, dispensation, lease, or other disposition of equipment, supplies, and other personal property and interest in personal property of whatsoever name or nature, and the retention of the services (whether directly or through contact or other arrangement with others), or employment of professional personnel, managers, administrators, assistants, secretaries, and other persons, agents, servants and employees provided, always, however, that no part of the property held by the corporation, or the earnings thereon, shall inure or be payable to or for the benefit of any private individual, officer or director, except that the Corporation shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered or for property acquired, either real or personal to any individual. No part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or the participation in, or intervention (including the publishing or distributing of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

A new Article VIII is added as follows:

ARTICLE VIII

In the event of the dissolution of this corporation, to the extent allowed under applicable law, all of the assets of the corporation shall be distributed to, or its assets shall be sold and the proceeds distributed to, another organization organized and operating for the same purposes for which this corporation is organized and operating, or to one or more corporations, funds or foundations organized and operating exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, which said corporations, funds or foundations shall be exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or as subsequently amended which shall be selected by the Board of Directors of the corporation. In the event that for any reason upon the dissolution of the corporation the Board of Directors of the corporation shall fail to act in the manner herein provided within a reasonable time, the Judge of the Circuit Court of Hillsborough County, Florida shall make such distribution as herein provided upon the application of one or more persons having a real interest in the corporation or its assets.

A new Article IX is added as follows:

ARTICLE IX

In the Articles of Incorporation and in any amendments to them, the terms "charitable organizations" or "charitable organization" shall mean corporations, trusts, funds, foundations, community chests or other organizations created or organized in the United States or any of its possessions, whether under the laws of the United States, any state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, or any possessions of the United States, and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures or is payable to or for the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and which do not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distributing of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. The organizations described in this Article shall be such only as are entitled to exemption from income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or acts in amendments thereof or substitution therefor.

A new Article X is added as follows:

ARTICLE X

In the Articles of Incorporation and any amendments to them, the term "charitable purposes" shall mean, and shall be limited to and shall include only, religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes within the meaning of those words as used in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or acts in amendment thereof or substitution thereof.

A new Article XI is added as follows:

ARTICLE XI

As a means of accomplishing the foregoing charitable, religious and educational purposes, the corporation shall have the following additional powers:

- (1) To adopt, amend and alter by-laws of the corporation governing its internal affairs.
- (2) To elect and appoint officers, agents, and employees, consistent with said by-laws and this Charter and not in violation of law.
- (3) To borrow money, and from time to time, to make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other obligations of the corporation for moneys borrowed or in payment for property acquired or for any of the other purposes of the corporation, and to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, indenture, agreement, or other instrument of trust or by other privilege upon, assignment of, or agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights, or privileges of the corporation wherever situated, whether now owned or hereafter to be acquired.
- (4) To invest and reinvest its funds in such stock, common or preferred, bonds, debentures, mortgages, or in such other securities and property as may be provided for in the by-laws of the corporation subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, devise, grant, or gift, provided such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
- (5) In general, and subject to such limitations and conditions as are or may be prescribed by law, to exercise such other powers which are now or hereafter may be conferred by law upon a corporation organized for the purposes hereinabove set forth, or reasonably necessary to the attainment of the purposes of the corporation, subject to the further limitation and conditions that, notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, only such powers shall be exercised as are in furtherance of the tax-exempt purposes of the corporation and as may be exercised by an organization exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended and by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of such Code and regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned executes these Articles of Amendment, this 27th Day of April, 2000.
