ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION FOR TOSCANA HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION, INC.

FILED
00 FEB 25 AM 11:25
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned incorporator, for the purpose of forming a corporation not for profit pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida, hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation:

1
NAME

The name of the corporation shall be TOSCANA HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION, INC. For convenience, the corporation shall be referred to in this instrument as the "Association", these Articles of Incorporation as the "Articles", and the By-Laws of the Association as the "By-Laws".

2
OFFICE

The principal office and mailing address of the Association shall be at 3700 South Ocean Boulevard, Highland Beach, Florida 33487, or at such other place as may be subsequently designated by the Board of Directors. All books and records of the Association shall be kept at its principal office or at such other place as may be permitted by the Act.

3
PURPOSE

The objects and purposes of the Association are those objects and purposes as are authorized by the Declaration of Covenants, Restrictions and Easements for Toscana, recorded (or to be recorded) in the Public Records of Palm Beach County Florida, as hereafter amended and/or supplemented from time to time (the "Declaration" or "Homeowners' Covenants"). All of the definitions set forth in the Homeowners' Covenants are hereby incorporated herein by this reference. The further objects and purposes of the Association are to preserve the values and amenities in The Properties and to maintain the Common Properties thereof for the benefit of the Owners who become Members of the Association.

DEFINITIONS

The terms used in these Articles shall have the same definitions and meanings as those set forth in the Homeowners' Covenants, unless herein provided to the contrary, or unless the context otherwise requires.

5
POWERS

The powers of the Association shall include and be governed by the following:

- 5.1 General. The Association shall have all of the common-law and statutory powers of a corporation not for profit under the Laws of Florida, except as expressly limited or restricted by applicable law, the terms of these Articles, the Homeowners' Covenants or the By-Laws.
- 5.2 Enumeration. In addition to the powers set forth in Section 5.1 above, the Association shall have all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate The Properties pursuant to the Homeowners' Covenants and as more particularly described in the By-Laws, as they may be amended from time to time, including, but not limited to, the following:
 - (a) To make and collect Assessments and other charges against members as Owners (whether or not such sums are due and payable to the Association), and to use the proceeds thereof in the exercise of its powers and duties.
 - (b) To buy, accept, own, operate, lease, sell, trade and mortgage both real and personal property in accordance with the provisions of the Homeowners' Covenants.
 - (c) To maintain, repair, replace, reconstruct, add to and operate the Common Properties, and other property acquired or leased by the Association.

- (d) To purchase insurance upon the Common Properties and insurance for the protection of the Association, its officers, directors and Owners.
- (e) To make and amend reasonable rules and regulations for the maintenance, conservation and use of The Properties and for the health, comfort, safety and welfare of the Owners.
- (f) To approve or disapprove the leasing, transfer, ownership and possession of Units as may be provided by the Homeowners' Covenants.
- (g) To enforce by legal means the provisions of the Homeowners' Covenants, these Articles, the By-Laws, the rules and regulations for the use of the Common Properties and applicable law.
- (h) To contract for the management and maintenance of the Common Properties and to authorize a management agent (which may be an affiliate of the Developer) to assist the Association in carrying out its powers and duties by performing such functions as the submission of proposals, collection of Assessments, preparation of records, enforcement of rules and maintenance, repair and replacement of the Common Properties with such funds as shall be made available by the Association for such purposes. The Association and its officers shall, however, retain at all times the powers and duties to make Assessments, promulgate rules and execute contracts on behalf of the Association.
- (i) To employ personnel to perform the services required for the proper operation of the Common Properties.
- (j) To execute all documents or consents, on behalf of all Owners (and their mortgagees); required by all governmental and/or quasi-governmental agencies in connection with land use and development matters (including, without limitation, plats, waivers of plat, unities of title, covenants in lieu thereof, etc.), and in that regard, each Owner, by acceptance of the deed to such Owner's Unit, and each mortgagee of a Unit Owner by acceptance of a lien on said Unit, appoints and designates the President of the Association as such Owner's agent and attorney-in-fact to execute any and all such documents or consents.

5.3 Association Property. All funds and the title to all properties acquired by the Association and their proceeds shall be held for the benefit and use of the members in accordance with the provisions of the Homeowners' Covenants, these Articles and the By-Laws.

5.4 Distribution of Income; Dissolution. The Association shall not pay a dividend to its members and shall make no distribution of income to its members, directors or officers, and upon dissolution, all assets of the Association shall be transferred only to another non-profit corporation or a public agency or as otherwise authorized by the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act (Chapter 617, Florida Statutes).

5.5 Limitation. The powers of the Association shall be subject to and shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions hereof and of the Homeowners' Covenants, the By-Laws and applicable law, provided that in the event of conflict, the provisions of applicable law shall control over those of the Homeowners' Covenants and By-Laws.

6 MEMBERS

6.1 Membership. The members of the Association shall consist of the Declarant and all of the record title owners of Lots within The Properties from time to time, and after termination of The Properties, shall also consist of those who were members at the time of such termination, and their successors and assigns.

6.2 Assignment. The share of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to the Lot for which that share is held.

6.3 Voting. The Association shall have two (2) classes of voting membership:

Class A Members shall be all those Owners, as defined in Section 6.1, with the exception of the "Declarant" (as long as the Class B Membership shall exist, and thereafter, the Declarant shall be a Class A Member to the extent it would otherwise qualify) and shall be entitled to cast the number of votes (including fractional votes) equal to the percentage obligation from time to time of such owner for expenses of the Homeowners' Association. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Class A Members who are also members of a Neighborhood Association shall only vote through a Voting Member and said Class A

Members shall be entitled to elect from among themselves, respectively, one Voting Member for each such respective Neighborhood Association, each such Voting Member to have and cast the number of votes (including fractional votes) equal to the aggregate percentage obligation of the Condominium Lots represented by the Neighborhood Association (as determined in the manner set forth in Section 7.2 of the Homeowners' Covenants). By way of example only, if The Properties only consisted of two (2) condominium buildings and one Non-Condominium Lot, and Condominium 1 contained 500,000 sellable square feet, Condominium 2 contained 750,000 sellable square feet, and the Non-Condominium Lot contained 50,000 sellable square feet, then the Voting Member representing the Neighborhood Association governing Condominium 1 would cast 37.03 votes (inasmuch as the owners of Condominium Lots in Condominium 1 would be responsible for 37.03% (500,000/1,350,000) of the total expenses of the Association), the Voting Member representing the Neighborhood Association governing Condominium 2 would cast 55.56 votes (inasmuch as the owners of Condominium Lots in Condominium 2 would be responsible for 55.56% (750,000/1,350,000) of the total expenses of the Association) and the Non-Condominium Lot Owner would cast 7.41 votes (inasmuch as the owner of Non-Condominium Lot would be responsible for 7.41% (100,000/1,350,000) of the total expenses of the Association). The first election of such Voting Member for a particular Neighborhood Association shall be conducted at or immediately following the meeting at which control of such Neighborhood Association is turned over to its members other than the developer/declarant (i.e., at which the non-developer/declarant members elect a majority of the board of directors) and prior to such time, the Voting Member for the members within the Neighborhood Association shall be the developer of the community governed by the Neighborhood Association. At such time, and at all times thereafter, the Neighborhood Association shall elect its Voting Member in the same manner as it elects its board of directors, subject to the same rules as those applicable to its directors as to the term of office, removal, replacement and other matters. In the event that the members of a Neighborhood Association do not elect a Voting Member, the President of such Association shall perform the duties of the Voting Member.

Class B Member. The Class B Voting Member shall be the Declarant, or a representative thereof, who shall have and cast one (1) vote in all Association matters, plus two (2) votes for each vote which may be cast, in the aggregate, by the Class A Members and/or Voting Members. Such Class B Voting Member may be removed and replaced by the Declarant in its sole discretion. The Class B membership shall cease and terminate at such time as the Declarant elects, but in no event later than the time period set forth in Section 6.5 below.

All votes shall be exercised or cast in the manner provided by the Homeowners' Covenants and By-Laws.

- 6.4 Meetings. The By-Laws shall provide for an annual meeting of members, and may make provision for regular and special meetings of members other than the annual meeting.
- 6.5 Proviso. Unless the Class B Voting Member elects to terminate the Class B Membership sooner, the Class B Membership shall cease and terminate three (3) months after ninety (90%) percent of the Lots that will be operated ultimately by the Association (including those which may be within the Future Development Property, unless Declarant has put of record a written certification relinquishing the right to submit the Future Development Property to The Properties) have been conveyed to purchasers (other than purchasers who are builders, contractors, or others who purchase a parcel for the purpose of constructing improvements thereon for resale). The Declarant is entitled (but not obligated) to elect at least one (1) member of the Board of Directors as long as the Declarant holds for sale in the ordinary course of business five percent (5%) of the Units that will be operated ultimately by the Association (including those which may be within the Future Development Property, unless Declarant has put of record a written certification relinquishing the right to submit the Future Development Property to The Properties).

The Developer may transfer control of the Association to Unit Owners other than the Developer prior to such dates in its sole discretion by causing enough of its appointed Directors to resign, whereupon it shall be the affirmative obligation of Unit Owners other than the Developer to elect Directors and assume control of the Association. Provided at least thirty (30) days' notice of Developer's decision to cause its appointees to resign is given to Unit Owners, neither the Developer, nor such appointees, shall be liable in any manner in connection with such resignations even if the Unit Owners other than the Developer refuse or fail to assume control.

- 10.6 Standards. A Director shall discharge his duties as a director, including any duties as a member of a Committee: in good faith; with the care an ordinary prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Association. Unless a Director has knowledge concerning a matter in question that makes reliance unwarranted, a Director, in discharging his duties, may rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other data, if prepared or presented by: one or more officers or employees of the Association whom the Director reasonably believes to be reasonable and competent in the manners presented; legal counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters the Director reasonably believes are within the persons' professional or expert competence; or a Committee of which the Director is not a member if the Director reasonably believes the Committee merits confidence. A Director is not liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take action, if he performed the duties of his office in compliance with the foregoing standards.

11 INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS

- 11.1 Indemnitees. The Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding (other than an action by, or in the right of, the Association) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent (each, an "Indemnitee") of the Association, against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Association or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.
- 11.2 Indemnification. The Association shall indemnify any person, who was or is a party to any proceeding by or in the right of the Association to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Association against expenses and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the board of directors, the estimated expense of litigating the proceeding to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. Such indemnification shall be authorized if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Association, except that no indemnification shall be made under this subsection in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such proceeding was brought, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.
- 11.3 Indemnification for Expenses. To the extent that a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Association has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding referred to in subsection 11.1 or 11.2, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.
- 11.4 Determination of Applicability. Any indemnification under subsection 11.1 or subsection 11.2, unless pursuant to a determination by a court, shall be made by the Association only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee, or agent is proper under the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsection 11.1 or subsection 11.2. Such determination shall be made:

- (a) By the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such proceeding;
 - (b) If such a quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, by majority vote of a Committee duly designated by the Board of Directors (in which directors who are parties may participate) consisting solely of two or more Directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;
 - (c) By independent legal counsel:
 - 1. selected by the Board of Directors prescribed in paragraph (a) or the committee prescribed in paragraph (b); or
 - 2. if a quorum of the Directors cannot be obtained for paragraph (a) and the Committee cannot be designated under paragraph (b), selected by majority vote of the full Board of Directors (in which Directors who are parties may participate); or
 - (d) By a majority of the voting interests of the members of the Association who were not parties to such proceeding.
- 11.5 Determination Regarding Expenses. Evaluation of the reasonableness of expenses and authorization of indemnification shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible. However, if the determination of permissibility is made by independent legal counsel, persons specified by paragraph 10.5 shall evaluate the reasonableness of expenses and may authorize indemnification.
- 11.6 Advancing Expenses. Expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending a civil or criminal proceeding may be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if he is ultimately found not to be entitled to indemnification by the Association pursuant to this section. Expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be paid in advance upon such terms or conditions that the Board of Directors deems appropriate.
- 11.7 Exclusivity; Exclusions. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided pursuant to this section are not exclusive, and the Association may make any other or further indemnification or advancement of expenses of any of its directors, officers, employees, or agents, under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. However, indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any director, officer, employee, or agent if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute:
- (a) A violation of the criminal law, unless the director, officer, employee, or agent had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful;
 - (b) A transaction from which the director, officer, employee, or agent derived an improper personal benefit; or
 - (c) Willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the Association in a proceeding by or in the right of the Association to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of the members of the Association.
- 11.8 Continuing Effect. Indemnification and advancement of expenses as provided in this section shall continue as, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified.
- 11.9 Application to Court. Notwithstanding the failure of a Association to provide indemnification, and despite any contrary determination of the Board or of the members in the specific case, a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Association who is or was a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification or advancement of expenses, or both, to the court conducting the proceeding, to the circuit court, or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving any notice that it considers necessary, may order indemnification and advancement of expenses, including expenses incurred in seeking court-ordered indemnification or advancement of expenses, if it determines that:

- (a) The director, officer, employee, or agent is entitled to mandatory indemnification under subsection 11.3 in which case the court shall also order the Association to pay the director reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining court-ordered indemnification or advancement of expenses;
 - (b) The director, officer, employee, or agent is entitled to indemnification or advancement of expenses, or both, by virtue of the exercise by the Association of its power pursuant to subsection 11.7; or
 - (c) The director, officer, employee, or agent is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification or advancement of expenses, or both, in view of all the relevant circumstances, regardless of whether such person met the standard of conduct set forth in subsection 11.1, subsection 11.2, or subsection 11.7, unless (a) a court of competent jurisdiction determines, after all available appeals have been exhausted or not pursued by the proposed indemnitee, that he did not act in good faith or acted in a manner he reasonably believed to be not in, or opposed to, the best interest of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, and (b) such court further specifically determines that indemnification should be denied. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith or did act in a manner which he reasonably believed to be not in, or opposed to, the best interest of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.
- 11.10 Definitions. For purposes of this Article 11, the term "expenses" shall be deemed to include attorneys' fees, including those for any appeals; the term "liability" shall be deemed to include obligations to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, and expenses actually and reasonably incurred with respect to a proceeding; the term "proceeding" shall be deemed to include any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or other type of proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal; and the term "agent" shall be deemed to include a volunteer; the term "serving at the request of the Association" shall be deemed to include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association that imposes duties on such persons.
- 11.11 Amendment. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, no amendment to the provisions of this Article 11 shall be applicable as to any party eligible for indemnification hereunder who has not given his prior written consent to such amendment.

12 BY-LAWS

The first By-Laws of the Association shall be adopted by the Board of Directors and may be altered, amended or rescinded in the manner provided in the By-Laws and the Homeowners' Covenants.

13 AMENDMENTS

Amendments to these Articles shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

- 13.1 Notice. Such notice shall contain the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be affected thereby.
- 13.2 Adoption. Amendments shall be proposed and adopted in the manner provided in Chapter 617, Florida Statutes and in the Act (the latter to control over the former to the extent provided for in the Act).
- 13.3 Developer Amendments. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, to the extent lawful, the Developer may amend these Articles consistent with the provisions of the Homeowners' Covenants allowing certain amendments to be effected by the Developer alone.
- 13.4 Recording. A copy of each amendment shall be filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to the provisions of applicable Florida law, and a copy certified by the Secretary of State shall be recorded in the public records of Palm Beach County, Florida with an identification on the first page thereof of the book and page of said public records where the Homeowners' Covenants were recorded which contains, as an exhibit, the initial recording of these Articles.
