Amendment #1 to Articles

- 1. A review of your Articles of Incorporation indicates that you must amend this document with the Secretary of State to limit your purposes to those specified in Section 501@ (3) and to permanently dedicate your assets to the exempt purposes of this section. You must contact the Secretary of State and request amendment to your Article of Incorporation to include the attached Purpose of Dissolution Clause. Please submit a copy of the amendment of the Articles of Incorporation that has been filed, approved, dated, and signed by the Secretary of State.

In order to come within the purview of Section 501@ (3) of the Internal Revenue Code you must amend your Articles of Incorporation, with the Secretary of State to include the statements below. After the Secretary of State has returned the amended Articles to you, please submit a copy to us so that we may complete the processing of your application.

PURPOSE: The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501c(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

DISSOLUTION CLAUSE: Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all the assets of the corporation exclusively for the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501c(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Trustees shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed by the Court of the Common Pleas of the County in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which were organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
