A. Compensation. A director of the Corporation shall not receive compensation for services rendered to the Corporation as a director. An officer of the Corporation shall not receive compensation for services rendered to the Corporation as an officer. These prohibitions shall not preclude reimbursement of a director, officer, or duly appointed committee member for expenses or advances made for the Corporation that are reasonable in character and amount and approved for payment in the manner provided by the bylaws. These prohibitions shall not preclude payment of reasonable compensation to a director, officer, or duly appointed committee member for services rendered to the Corporation in any other capacity, provided that the Corporation shall make no payment that would constitute "self-dealing" as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

B. Indemnification.
