3) to have and exercise any and all powers and privileges now or hereafter conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon corporations formed under the general laws above referred to, or under any Act amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto or in substitution therefor.

The foregoing enumeration of the purposes, objects and business of the Corporation is made in furtherance, and not in limitation of the powers conferred upon the Corporation by law, and it is not intended, by the mention of any particular purpose, object or business, in any manner to limit or restrict the generality of any other purpose, object or business, or to limit or restrict any of the powers of the Corporation, and the said

ARTICLE VI

The following provisions are hereby adopted for the purpose of defining, limiting and regulating the powers of the Corporation and of the directors and/or officers:

(1) The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall establish a time and place for an organizational meeting.

(2) The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall by majority vote enact an initial set of By-laws to govern the organization.

The enumeration and definition of a particular power of the Board of Directors included in the foregoing shall in no way be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause of this or any other article of the Charter of the Corporation, or construed as or deemed by inference or otherwise in any manner to exclude or limit any powers conferred upon the Board of Directors under the Laws of the State of Florida now or hereafter in force.

ARTICLE VII

The corporation shall provide any indemnification required or permitted by the Laws of Florida and shall indemnify directors, officers, agents and employees as follows:

(1) The Corporation shall indemnify any director or officer of the Corporation who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was such director or officer or an employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

(2) The Corporation shall indemnify any director or officer of the Corporation who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgement in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was such a director or officer or an employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonable incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in and not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought, or any other court having jurisdiction in the premises, shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability by in view or all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expense as such court shall deem proper.

(3) To the extent that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) of the Article EIGHTH or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity for the determination as to the standard of conduct as provided in paragraph (4) of this Article SEVENTH.

(4) Any indemnification under paragraph (1) or (2) or this Article SEVENTH (unless ordered by a Court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in paragraph (1) or (2) of this Article SEVENTH. Such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors of the Corporation by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding, or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable, if such a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel (who may be regular counsel for the Corporation) in a written opinion; and any determination so made shall be conclusive.

(5) Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding, as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article.

(6) Agents and employees of the Corporation who are not directors or officers of the Corporation may be indemnified under the same standard and procedures set forth above, in the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

(7) Any indemnification pursuant to this Article EIGHTH shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such a person.

ARTICLE VIII

The corporation upon unanimous approval of the stockholders reserves the right to make from time to time any amendments of its charter which may now or hereafter be authorized by law.

ARTICLE X

The duration of the Corporation shall be perpetual.
