REF: DESOLUTION/REINTESEMENT

When I failed to receive my Annual report for a second time, I went to the Website to see if I could have completed it online and upon checking on my corporation, I found out that it was dissolved for no Annual Report. I found this to be very disturbing and troublesome. I certainly don't want get in trouble with government and I certainly don't want to know my corporation is active when it is not, but it seems that I can't get it right, specially when mails do get lost through our postal system.

Last year I failed to receive my Annual Report form. I called to have it sent to me. I filed my Annual Report, it was returned due to improper signature. According to my knowledge, the problem was corrected and the report was put in the mail the very next day. According to your office, it was not filed and was dissolved. Prior to this incident, I submitted two changes of addresses, which never got into effect. I just cannot explain why my mails have problem reaching your office.

Due to the fact I was not responsible for the dissolution, I am requesting that the fee imposed for the reinstatement dismiss and the corporation be reinstated accordingly. Enclosed is my fee for the current Annual Report year. This inconvenience caused me frustration and I have now to pay extra postage in order to assure delivery. This is an extra headache I do need to avoid as much as possible.

Thank you for your understanding and your prompt response on this matter. I can be reached at (407) 254-0880 and I remain sincerely yours,

Dr. Tardieu Ridore
President
