ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF THE
PUBLIC ARCHAEOLOGY RESEARCH CENTER, INC.
(A Corporation Not for Profit)

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of the Corporation is PUBLIC ARCHAEOLOGY RESEARCH CENTER, INC.

ARTICLE II – PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS

The principal place of business for the Corporation is 4 Walnut Court, Ormond Beach, Florida 32174. The mailing address for the Corporation is 4 Walnut Court, Ormond Beach, Florida 32174.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are exclusively religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law. The Corporation shall promote education, interest, knowledge and appreciation of Florida archaeology by encouraging and facilitating research of archaeological sites, education of the public on archaeology and past and present cultures, collaborations with other research organizations, and collection, interpretation, and exhibition of historical and archaeological objects relating to Florida.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

The further purposes for which the Corporation is established are: To cooperate with other corporations not for profit, foundations, institutions, governments or any political subdivisions thereof, other organizations and individuals in the research of archaeological and historical sites and objects, collection, interpretation, display and promotion of historical objects and sites relating to Florida;

To assist, promote, provide for, establish, maintain or conduct a research center, museum or museums, or other place or places for research, learning, exhibits and for use of objects, artifacts, books and documents, and also to collect and preserve artifacts, relics, books, documents and exhibits of historic, educational, scientific, or other interest to scholars, students or other interested persons which relate to Florida;

To make grants or gifts of money, or other property, for scholarships, for research, and for any activities deemed appropriate for the increase of knowledge of the archaeology and history of Florida;

To issue citations of merit and bestow medals or other acknowledgements of distinction upon persons, firms, associations, institutions and public and private corporations that make meritorious contributions to the advancement of such purposes;

To solicit, when authorized by law, and accept gifts, grants and bequests of money, securities or other property real or personal, for the endowment of its purposes and to hold the same in trust, or otherwise, in accordance with the instructions of the donor, and to invest and reinvest the same, and to employ the interest and income from such investments as well as the principal for its lawful purposes; to acquire in any lawful manner, property of every kind and description and to hold, direct, administer, manage, operate, own and dispose of the same. Any gift to the Corporation for the purposes herein provided may be made by effectively identifying the gift as made to or for the purposes of the Public Archaeology Research Center, Inc., or by identifying this Corporation by reference in the manner permitted by law in any will, deed, or written instrument legally operative to transfer title to the Corporation;

To own, hold, manage, pledge, sell, rent, lease, transfer, or in any manner, dispose of and deal and trade in real estate, goods, merchandise, tangible and intangible property of and every class and description wheresoever the same may be located;

To act as agent, principal, director, manager or otherwise, either alone or in conjunction with any government or political subdivision thereof, person, firm, association, institution or public or private corporation.
