ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

Family First Foundation, Inc.

(A NOT-FOR-PROFIT FLORIDA CORPORATION)

I, the undersigned natural person being the age of eighteen (18) years or more, acting as incorporator, hereby make, subscribe, acknowledge and file these Articles of Incorporation for the purpose of becoming a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida and do hereby certify that I have become such corporation under and pursuant to the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I

CORPORATE NAME

1:1 The name of the corporation is: Family First Foundation, Inc.

ARTICLE II

DURATION

2:1 The period of duration of this corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

PURPOSES

3:1 The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, and not for profit, including:

- (a) To act or operate exclusively as a nonprofit corporation pursuant to the laws of the state of Florida, and to act and operate as a charitable organization in lessening the burdens of government, providing relief for the poor, the hungry, the homeless, and distressed by educational training programs, implementing self help programs, providing financial support and providing food and clothing to the aforesaid.
- (b) To engage in any and all activities and pursuits, and to support or assist such other organizations, as may be reasonably related to the foregoing and following purposes.
- (c) To engage in any and all other lawful purposes, activities and pursuits, which are substantially similar to the foregoing and which are or may hereafter be authorized by Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and are consistent with those powers as described in Florida Nonprofit Corporation and Corporation Association Act, as amended and supplemented.
- (d) To provide enrichment to the community through special programs.
- (e) To solicit and receive contributions, to purchase, to own and to sell real and personal property, to make contracts, to invest corporate funds, to spend corporate funds for corporate purposes, and to engage in any activity "in furtherance of, incidental to, or connected with any of the other purposes."

3:2 The corporation shall have the power to conduct activities and engage in transactions incidental to the accomplishment of the above purposes, including the power to accept contributions, subject to the following limitations:

- (a) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, Directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to the corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth above.
- (b) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office except as authorized under the most current Internal Revenue Code.
- (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law); or (2) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of said Internal Revenue Code.

3:3 If the corporation is ever classified by the Internal Revenue Service as a Private Foundation, the following provisions will prevail:

- (a) The corporation shall distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942.
- (b) The corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941 (d).
- (c) The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943 (c).
- (d) The corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944.
- (e) The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4949 (d).

3:4 Any references herein to "Section" refers to a section of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and to any corresponding subsequent tax laws.

ARTICLE IV

MEMBERSHIP

4:1 The corporation shall have no members.

ARTICLE V

SHARES

5:1 The corporation shall not issue any shares of stock.

ARTICLE VI

BY-LAWS

6:1 Provisions for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation are to be determined and set forth in the By-Laws. The original By-Laws shall be adopted by the Board of Directors of the corporation. Thereafter, By-Laws may be adopted, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors in accordance with the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VII

DISSOLUTION

7:1 Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for payment of all liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all assets of the corporation in such manner to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (c) (3).

7:2 Any such assets not so disposed of by the Board of Directors shall be disposed of by the district court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
