ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
RENAISSANCE BEHAVIORAL HEALTH INTEGRATED SYSTEMS, INCORPORATED
(a corporation not for profit)

The undersigned, as the incorporator of Renaissance Behavioral Health Integrated Systems, Incorporated, a Florida not for profit corporation (the "Corporation"), hereby adopts and files these Articles of Incorporation in accordance with Chapter 617, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE I - NAME AND ADDRESS OF PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The name of this Corporation shall be Renaissance Behavioral Health Integrated Systems, Incorporated. Its principal office and mailing address is 9095 S.W. 87th Avenue, Suite 501, Miami, Florida 33176.

ARTICLE II - ENABLING LAW

This Corporation is organized pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as a corporation not for profit.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSES AND POWER

A. The purposes for which this Corporation is organized are exclusively charitable and educational within the meaning of § 501(c)(3)¹ of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) (the "Code"), and notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under Code § 501(c)(3), contributions to which are deductible for federal and state income, gift and estate tax purposes. More specifically, the Corporation shall:

¹ Unless otherwise noted, all references are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, Title 26 of the United States Code, including corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws ("Code") and the regulations promulgated thereunder ("Treasury Regulations") as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

- (1) Provide assistance to the homeless, including through the provision of mental health care and counseling pertaining to the mental health problems that are associated with the homeless, including drug, alcohol, and spousal and child abuse;
- (2) Act as a clearinghouse of information pertaining to the homeless and the provision of mental health care to the homeless, and in particular the mental health problems associated with homelessness;
- (3) Work with and assist the governments of the City of Miami and Miami-Dade County in studying and solving local problems pertaining to such matters as dealing with the physiological and psychological needs of the homeless, including the absence of housing for persons who are low income and have the mental health problems often associated with homelessness, the provision of medical and mental health care to homeless persons with drug, alcohol and spousal and child abuse; and
- (4) Work with, coordinate, assist, and support other non-profit tax exempt organizations and enterprises that assist in providing physiological and psychological support to the homeless, and combat deterioration of its neighborhoods.

B. In furtherance of the Corporation's foregoing purposes, the Corporation shall be further authorized:

- i) To receive and maintain personal and real property, or both: and, subject to the restrictions and limitations herein set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income therefrom, and the principal thereof, exclusively for the foregoing charitable purposes, in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Code and Treasury Regulations.

ii) Do all such acts as are necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes set forth in these Articles of Incorporation and as are permitted by law and the Code or its corresponding Treasury Regulations for an entity which qualifies for exemption under Code § 501(c)(3) of the Code.

C. This Corporation does not contemplate any pecuniary gain or profit to directors or officers thereof and no part of any earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any director or officer of the Corporation or any other private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation, and the Corporation may reimburse its directors and officers for all expenses reasonably incurred in performing services rendered to, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of, the Corporation), and no director or officer of the Corporation, or any other private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon dissolution of the Corporation. However, the Corporation may confer benefits in the form of distributions, upon dissolution or otherwise, upon any organizations described in Code §§ 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2) as specified herein.

D. No substantial part of the activity of the Corporation shall include or consist of the carrying on of propaganda or of otherwise attempting to influence legislation. This Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in, or do any other act in connection with, any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office (including without limitation the publication or distribution of statements for or against any candidate).

E. All the property of this Corporation is and shall be irrevocably dedicated to charitable and educational purposes. In the event of a dissolution of this Corporation, the assets shall, after paying or making provisions for all liabilities of the Corporation, be distributed to one or more organizations which are organized and exist exclusively for charitable and educational purposes which, at the time of such dissolution, qualify as an organization described in Code §§ 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2), or any corresponding section of any prior or future Internal Revenue Code, or to the City of Miami, the County of Miami-Dade, the State of Florida, the United States, or any other governmental agency for exclusive public purposes. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction exclusively for such charitable purposes, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for such charitable purposes, as said court shall determine.

ARTICLE IV - TERM

The period of duration of this Corporation is perpetual, unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE V - INCORPORATOR

The name and address of the incorporator of this Corporation is KTG&S Registered Agent Corporation, 100 S.E. 2nd Street, 28th Floor, Miami, Florida 33131.
