Articles of Incorporation of International Volunteer Ministry Corporation

In Compliance with Chapter 617, F. S. (Not for Profit)

SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Article I. Name. The name of the corporation is International Volunteer Ministry Corporation.

Article II. Principal Office. The principal place of business and mailing address of this corporation shall be 235 Edgewater Drive, Dunedin, Fl, 34698.

Article III Purpose. The corporation is a not for profit corporation. The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

(a) The specific and primary purposes for which this corporation is formed are to operate for the advancement of religion, charity, and education and for other charitable purposes, by the distribution of its funds for such purposes, and particularly for Ministry Purposes.

(b) The general purposes for which this corporation is formed are to operate exclusively for such religious, charitable, and educational purposes as will qualify it as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations which qualify as tax-exempt organizations under that Code.

(c) This corporation shall not, as a substantial part of its activities, carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation; nor shall it participate or intervene (by publication or distribution of any statements or otherwise) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member thereof, or to the benefit of any private individual. Upon the dissolution or winding up of this corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of the corporation, shall be distributed to a not for profit fund, foundation, or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for religious or charitable purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

Article IV Manner of Election. The powers of this corporation shall be exercised, its property controlled, and its affairs conducted by a board of directors. The number of directors of the corporation shall be not less than three; provided, however, that such number may be changed by a bylaw duly adopted pursuant to the bylaws of this corporation.

The directors named herein as the first board of directors shall hold office until the first meeting of members, to be held on June 7, 2000 at 11:00 a.m. at 235 Edgewater Drive, Dunedin, Fl, 34698, at which time an election of directors shall be held. Directors elected at the first annual meeting, and at all times thereafter, shall serve for a term of two years until the second annual meeting of members following the election of directors and until the qualification of the successors in office. Annual meetings shall be held at 11:00 a.m., on the first Monday in December of each year at the principal office of the corporation, or at such other place or places as the board of directors may designate from time to time by resolution. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board of directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board, and any such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as if taken by unanimous vote of the directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law that relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the board of directors without a meeting and that the articles of incorporation and bylaws of this corporation authorize the directors to so act. Such a statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

Article V. Initial Directors/Officers. The names and residential addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial directors are:
