Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the members, and approved at a Member's meeting by a majority of the members, unless all the directors and all the Members sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these articles of incorporation be made.

ARTICLE 16- INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation shall indemnify a director or office of the Corporation who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any proceeding to which the director or officer of the Corporation was a party because the director or officer is or was a director or officer of the Corporation against reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding. The Corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation against liability if authorized in the specific case after determination, in the manner required by the board of directors, that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent, as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the director, officer, employee or agent has met the standard of conduct set forth by the board of directors in the by laws of the Corporation. The indemnification and advancement of attorney fees and expenses for directors, officers, employees and agents of the Corporation shall apply when such persons are serving at the Corporation's request while a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, as the case may be, as a director, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or not for profit, as well as in their official capacity with the Corporation. The Corporation also may pay for or reimburse the reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation who is party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding. The Corporation also may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual status as a director, officer, employee or agent, whether or not the Corporation could have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law. All references in these articles of incorporation are deemed to include any amendments or successor thereto. Nothing contained in these articles of incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of attorney fees and expenses who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or the ability of the Corporation otherwise to indemnify or advance expenses to any such person by contract or in any other manner. If any word, clause or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of the attorney fees or expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise affected. All references in these articles on Incorporation to "director", "officer", "employee", and "agent" shall include their heirs, estates, executors, administrators and personal representatives of such persons.

ARTICLE 17- DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to state or local government for public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, acknowledged and filed the foregoing articles of Incorporation under the laws of the State of Florida.

Heriberto J. Marte, Incorporator
