Re: N00000004695, Concerned Citizens of Central Dade, Inc.

June 25, 2001

To Whom It May Concern:

Concerned Citizens of Central Dade, Inc. (CCCD) was created by a group of neighbors to preserve-protect the quality of the citizens in the area of West Central Miami-Dade County. In July 2000, our current registered agent (C.R.A.) on file, took care of the incorporation process.

Since then, our C.R.A. changed business address, and the 2001 Uniform Business Report (UBR) was never received by him neither by any of the organization's directors.

Recently, a concerned citizen called my attention to this matter, and I immediately called the Department requesting a blank form to be mailed to my address.

We apology for the delay in filing the UBR. Attached find UBR completed and check No. 127 payable to the Department for $150.00.

This in a non for profit organization with very limited financial resources at hand.

We only count with the good intention and great heart of our members and directors to carry on the purpose of the organization.

If requested to pay a penalty for late filing, it may jeopardize the ability of the organization to exist.

Please accept our apologies for this mis communication that only happened due to a change of address (we did not receive the UBR)

Sincerely,

Nicolas Alvarez, Director
For the Board of Directors
