ARTICLE IX
POWERS

As a means of accomplishing the foregoing purposes and without in any way limiting said purposes, and in addition to those powers specifically granted by the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

(A) To solicit, collect, receive, acquire, hold and invest money and property, both real and personal, tangible and intangible, including money and property received by gift, contribution, bequest, or devise; to sell and convert property, both real and personal, into cash and to use the funds of this corporation and the proceeds, income, rents, issues, and profits derived from any property of this corporation for any of the purposes for which the corporation is formed;

(B) To refuse, or accept any bequest, devise, grant or gift, for any of its objects and purposes, any property, both real and personal, of whatever kind, nature or description and wherever situated;

(C) To purchase or acquire, own, hold, lease (either as lessor or lessee), sell, exchange, convey, mortgage, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any property, real and personal, as the objects and purposes of the Corporation may require, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law;

(D) To borrow money, and, from time to time, to make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other obligations of the Corporation for moneys borrowed or in payment for property acquired or for any of the other purposes of the Corporation, and to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgage, pledge, deed, indenture, agreement or other instrument of trust, or by other lien, upon assignment of, or agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights, and privileges of the Corporation wherever situated, whether now owned or hereafter acquired;

(E) To invest and reinvest its funds in such stock, common or preferred, bonds, debentures, mortgages, or in such other securities and property as its board of directors shall deem advisable, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, devise, grant or gift, provided such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations promulgated thereunder as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

(F) To enter into, make, perform, and carry out contracts of every kind for any lawful purposes without limit or amount, with any person, firm, association or corporation, municipality, county, parish, state, territory government, or other municipal or governmental subdivision;

(G) To enter into any plan or project for the assistance and welfare of its employees;

(H) To sue and be sued;

(I) To appoint such subordinate officers and agents as the business of the corporation requires, prescribe their duties and fix their compensation; and

(J) In general and subject to such limitations and conditions as are or may in the future be prescribed by law, to exercise such other powers which are now or hereafter may be conferred by the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act and amendments thereto and thereof, upon a corporation organized for the purposes hereinabove set forth, or necessary or incidental to the powers so conferred, or conducive to the attainment of the purposes of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X

MEMBERSHIP

This Corporation shall have no members.

ARTICLE XI

PROVISIONS FOR PRIVATE FOUNDATION

In the event the Corporation is deemed to be a "private foundation" according to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and the Regulations thereunder, as amended, the Corporation shall be subject to the following provisions:

(A) The Corporation shall distribute its income for such taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax or undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws;

(B) The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws;

(C) The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws;

(D) The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; and

(E) The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or any corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

ARTICLE XII

LIMITATION OF DIRECTOR LIABILITY

To the fullest extent permitted by the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act as it exists or may hereafter be amended, no person who is serving or who has served as a director of the Corporation shall be personally liable for monetary damages for breach of any duty as a director. No amendment or repeal of this article, nor the adoption of any other amendment to these Articles of Incorporation inconsistent with this Article, shall eliminate or reduce the protection granted herein with respect to any matter that occurred prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption.

DATED this 22nd day of August, 2000.

Deborah L. McKenney, Incorporator

Having been named as registered agent and to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I hereby accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity. I further agree to comply with the provisions of all statutes relating to the proper and complete performance of my duties, and I am familiar with and accept the obligations of my position as registered agent.
