The MAIN PURPOSE is to provide spiritual help and educational training for Persons with Disabilities and Caregivers in matters directly relating to their specific needs, regardless of religion (or lack of religion), race, creed or ethnic background. In doing so, Christ is glorified, and the "Church," as well as the community at large is strengthened.

These purposes encompass the full scope of teaching, employment preparation and computer training as well as presentation of concerts, published books and articles, radio programs, television programs, audio recordings, video recordings, meetings, special projects, use of the Internet, pet therapy, transportation, outings, counseling, individual or group instruction and visitation.
