ARTICLE III - PREROGATIVES AND PURPOSES

- Section 1. This corporation shall have the right to govern itself according to the standards of the Holy Bible, "Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace... till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ." (Ephesians 4:3-13).
- Section 2. This corporation shall have the right and power to purchase or acquire by gifts, bequests, or otherwise, and to own, hold in trust, use, sell, convey, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property as may be necessary for the furtherance of its purposes.
- Section 3. This corporation shall have the right to engage in and conduct educational, benevolent, and charitable work; to establish churches, to found Bible schools and/or colleges for the training of those desiring to do the work of the ministry, to organize, build, and operate Christian schools, to maintain charitable institutions such as homes for the indigent or aged, widows, orphans, alcoholics, drug addicts, retired ministers, and missionaries or other persons in need of the necessary provisions of life; to print and/or publish and sell or otherwise distribute tracts, periodicals and other literature, and in connection therewith operate a general printing and publishing business.
- Section 4. This corporation shall have the right to set apart, charge, commission, license, and/or ordain persons to the ministry, to send missionaries to any and all parts of the earth as they may be called and qualified.
- Section 5. This corporation shall have the right to engage in any activity for the furtherance of the Gospel or any related activity in dealing with people as given by and/or in accordance with commandment, example, or other in the Holy Bible.

ARTICLE XIV - DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of this corporation, all of its assets remaining after payment of all costs and expenses of such dissolution shall be distributed to organizations which have qualified for exemption under Section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. None of the assets shall be distributed to any member, officer, or trustee of this corporation.
